READ THE FOLLOWING:

In pure dye Lyons dress silks in blacks and colors. D. Crawford & Co. are now prepared to show the most gigantic stock ever brought to this market, and at by far the lowest prices ever quoted for the same goods. All the well-known and reliable brands are represented in this vast stock, such as C. J. Bonnet's, Guenet's, Fullard's, Ponson, Hamot, Morand Uncle and Nephew, Thomaset and Copaney, Handspun, Gros Riche, Bonnet Mayed, Cachemire Milano, Cachemire Princess, Cachemire Alexandre, and a complete line of Spitalfields and Macclesfield English silks, elegant wearing goods, and at very moderate prices. The prices in blacks range from 40c to $3, and in colors from 35c to $2 50. A fine quality for dress purposes in either blacks or colors can be purchased for $1; something very fine for $1 50 and upwards. Many of the above makes D. C. & Co. give a written guarantee with. Givernaud's gold medal American dress silks in blacks and colors are the finest goods made on this continent for the money in appearance and durability. D. Crawford & Co. keep them in every grade from $1 to $2.

A faultless stock of blackand colored Satin de Lyons and Satin de Lyon brocades at prices fully 20 per cent under what the importers are now asking for the same goods. D. Crawford & Co. are now offering new spring colorings in Satin de Lyons at $1 per yard, with brocades at the same price; these goods cost $1 85 to make; only a few pieces left. Blacks can be had from $1 to $3, with brocades in every conceivable design to combine, at the same rates.

D. Crawford & Co. will show Monday the largest and most select stock of summer silks ever exhibited here, at prices ranging from 40c to $1 per yard. Prominent among this collection will be found 97 pcs Surah Louisines, worth fully $1 25 a yard; they will be offered during the coming week at 65c. Some lovely designs in stripes and broken checks; also, Tartan checks, being the newest thing in the market up to date. A fine assortment of Jaspers and Cheries, together with a complete stock of black and white and gray and black stripes and checks at low prices.

Black and Colored Satins from 40c to $1 75; an immense assortment in colors—every shade and quality; in Blacks, every grade and price.

SPECIAL.

132 pieces Black Velvet and Satin Stripes, which cost $3 25 to make. D. Crawford & Co. will clear out for $1 50 per yard. They are the best quality made.

A most complete stock of Black and Colored Silk Velvets from 75c to $15; a fine quality of either can be had at $1 50. The $2 quality is equal to any shown at $3 in any house in the city.

WAR IN THE WIND.

Significant Demonstration by the Greek Government.

Turkey Preparing Rapidly for Hostilities.

A Plan for Representation of the People Talked Of by the Czar.

Evacuation of Candahar — European News—Important Cablegrams.

Afghanistan.

LONDON, March 28.—A correspondent at Calcutta says the impression grows stronger, whatever the Government intends doing, it will now be found impossible to evacuate Candahar before autumn. The season is so far advanced it would be dangerous to march the troops to India. The political outlook is so doubtful General Hume refused to allow the departure of the regiments already ordered to start.

REBELLION IN HERAT.

SOUDAN, March 28.—A dispatch from Candahar says: A formidable rebellion prevails in Herat. Ayoob Khan is perhaps already exiled or a prisoner. Mohonead Hassan Khan, Governor of Kuski induced three Herat regiments stationed at Kuski to mutiny and join the Line and Aimak tribes in an attack on Herat. It may be safely inferred that the murder of Mohonead Khan who commanded these three regiments, was the first act of rebellion instead of the result of a private quarrel. At last accounts the rebellion was so formidable that Ayoob Kahn was virtually besieged in the citadel.

This gives a favorable opportunity to Abdurrahman Kahn to reunite Afghanistan under the supremacy of Cabul. Five thousand of his troops are now on the road hither and should be in full possession of Candahar province by the 15th of April. An immediate advance on Herat, if Ayoob Khan is not expelled or killed before then, could, in the existing state of affairs, scarcely fail to be successful.

Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.—There are continued rumors of Gen. Melikoff's resignation. It is believed the Emperor has ordered a ukase to be prepared convoking commissioners to discuss the question of the representation of the people on State questions.

THE GARTER.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.—The Prince of Wales will to-day confer the Order of the Garter on the Czar.

England.

LONDON, March 28.—Information in the hands of the police strongly tends to confirm the complicity of three American Irishmen, named Mooney, O'Donnell and Coleman, in the recent attempt to blow up the Mansion House. Although the extradition treaties do not cover the matter, the detectives who have been sent to the Continent to seek Mooney and O'Donnell, will rely only upon the good offices of the authorities there not to place legal difficulties in the way of their arrest.

Greece.

ATHENS, March 28.—On the 6th of April, the anniversary of Greek independence, a grand review will be held when the King will present colors to the regiments composing the garrison of Athens and selected detatchments from other regiments. The meaning of this act and the reasons for the choice of this occasion are obvious. The ceremony will be followed by orders for the departure of various corps for their alloted stations on the frontier.

Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 28.—Great activity prevails in the preparations for the defense of Volo. The work of placing torpedoes has commenced. The troops have occupied Trikere, on the Turkish side of the entrance of the Gulf of Volo, and an earthwork is being constructed there.

Germany.

BERLIN, March 28.—The Prussian Government is considering the question of the adoption of the Scrutin De Liste system of voting at the election for members of the Diet.

Italy.

ROME, March 28.—A lady obtained a private audience with the Pope and warned him the day and hour were fixed for the murder of himself and Cardinal Pecci.

SCALDED AND MANGLED.

Twelve Men Wounded, Three Seriously, By a Boiler Explosion.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 28.—The main head of the boiler at Brown, Bonnel & Co.'s mill, blew out at 9:30 this morning. Three men, Dan Segler, Ed. Clark and Patrick Conroy, were seriously scalded and mangled, and two of them will probably die. There were many miraculous escapes and many men were slightly injured.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

PITTSBURG, March 28.—A Youngstown Ohio, special to the Chronicle says the manhead in a puddling furnace in Brown, Bonnell & Co.'s rolling mill blew up this morning, the escaping steam and flying debris wounding twelve men, three seriously. The explosion made a terrible noise, and the scene after the steam cloud and dust from the flying debris had cleared away was heart-rending. Wives and mothers gathered about the mill inquiring if their dear ones were killed. The wounded were removed to their homes and are receiving attention from all the physicians in the city. The loss of property is very small.

ADJOURNED.

The Thirty-first General Assembly of Missouri Finishes its Labors.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 28.—The day of adjournment has arrived, and sixty-three members of the House and thirteen Senators have deserted their post. They could not stand one dollar a day. Both Houses convened at 8 o'clock and devoted most of their time to reading enrolled bills.

The Governor has appointed Senator Morrison and Representatives McGinnis and Anthony as a committee to meet in this city, May 3, and examine the State Treasurer's accounts for the years 1877 and 1878.

The House adopted a resolution requiring the Adjutant-General to fire a salute of thirteen guns at noon in honor of the final adjournment of the General Assembly, and to commemorate the thirteen dollars received by them. Resolutions giving extra pay to the clerks and others were adopted. A resolution thanking personally each member of the press for uniform kindness displayed by them was adopted. Chief Clerk Hawley was presented with an elegant gold watch and chain by members of his staff. The House bill exempting collectors from scheduling property passed. The time having arrived for adjournment the doors were opened, and at 12 (noon) the Senate and House of the Thirty-first General Assembly were declared adjourned sine die. Nearly all the members will leave on the noon train for St. Louis to attend the banquet given by the citizens of South St. Louis to-night in acknowledgement of the passage of their street railroad bill.

CANED.

Immediately upon adjournment to-day Col. Leaming, of this city, in behalf of the citizens of Jefferson, presented Messrs. McGinnis, of St. Louis, and Parker, of Cass, each with elegant gold headed canes. Proper speeches and responses were made and all parted in the best of spirits.

Detroit News.

DETROIT, March 28.—Captain Charles W. Kimberk, of the well-known Michigan Southern steamers, running between Buffalo and Monroe, who has commanded some of the best vessels on the lakes, died at Ironton, between this city and Monroe, last night of bronchial affection.

John J. McQueen, the switchman of the Detroit and Milwaukee Junction, was killed yesterday morning while coupling cars.

Bob Williams, a notorious character, was arrested at Toledo last night, and taken to Oakland county, this State, where he is wanted on a charge of blowing up the safe at Clarkston last summer.

Theodore Walters, a German resident of North Lansing, committed suicide Saturday night, blowing his head off with a shot-gun. Drink and jealousy were the cause.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—For Ohio Valley and Tennessee, increasing cloudiness, occasional rain, wind shifting to easterly, stationary or higher temperature. Lower Lake Region, fair followed by cloudy weather, with occasional rain, northwest to northeast winds, generally higher temperature, stationary or lower barometer. Upper Lake Region, cloudy or partly cloudy weather, with occasional rain or snow, northerly winds, stationary or higher temperature. Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys, cloudy weather, with occasional rain, followed by clearing weather, northeast to northwest winds, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature.

Bogus Butter.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The Assembly Committee continued the investigation on the subject of counterfeit butter and cheese. This morning Gilbert T. Henshaw, produce broker, testified he had visited a number of oleomargarine factories and found oleomargarine butter was made from peanut lard and old oils alum and acids. In some factories the employes were exceedingly filthy, some working half naked and others wearing an old rag about the loins.

Castigating a Bully.

CLEVELAND, O., March 28.—A bully from Hayesville, Ohio, went to Londonville Saturday, and among other reprehensible acts insulted the editors of two papers published there. Finally the town marshal arrested him, but half a dozen citizens took him away, and after a liberal castigation put a rope around the bully's neck, led him beyond the town line and made him swear never to show his face again in Londonville.

Blaze in Minneapolis.

ST. PAUL, March 28.—The manilla building of the paper mill and pulp mill of Averill, Russell & Carpenter, at Minneapolis, caught fire at a late hour last night by some unknown cause. Material, loss of $4,000 or $5,000 sustained; fully covered by insurance. However, a far greater loss will be experienced by the shutting down of the mill just at the beginning of the busy season.

Fatal Collision.

CHICAGO, March 28.—About 7:30 o'clock this morning, as the Des Plaines passenger train on the Northwestern Railway was passing Division street crossing, it collided with a team of horses which was being driven across the track, killing both horses and driver.

Smothered to Death.

CAIRO, March 28.—A laborer named Murphy, while in a state of intoxication, laid down in a car of oats last night and was smothered to death.

Sentenced to be Hanged.

WASHINGTON.

Traitor Mahone Talks Glibly of Duty and Conscience.

Proceedings in the Senate—Nominations—Capital News.

Mahone's Speech.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Mr. Mahone's speech was the feature of the day, but nothing like nor as sensational as his first. The Senate was crowded, all expecting a sharp war of words, but the Democrats did not interrupt, it apparently being understood among them to let him alone. About 2:30 p. m. Mahone thoroughly warmed up and frequently left the manuscript to speak extemporaneously. He defended Reddleberger and said he was made of sterner stuff than the Democrats think. Mahone attacked Senator Johnson pretty severely, saying Johnson was elected to the Senate because he had no record and could again be elected on the same ground as he had done nothing. Towards 3 o'clock the attention at first paid Mahone became distracted, and the conversation on the floor and in the galleries caused confusion. Senator Mahone's speech has apparently had the effect of strengthening the determination of the Democrats in the fight. They consider it an insult on the entire Democracy and specially on the South, and say they will never yield and allow the election of Mahone's friend Riddleberger. The feeling has grown bitter now that even if Riddleberger should be withdrawn, it is doubtful if the Democrats would cease filibustering. Voorhees, Brown and other Democratic Senators attacked by Mahone will reply. Voorhees has been collecting Mahone's past history and will make, it is said, a severe speech.

The Republicans still declare their determination to fight the thing out if it takes all summer.

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague occupied a seat in the Senate gallery to-day.

U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The supreme Court of the United States, convened to-day. On account of the absence of Justice Field, whose mother-in-law, Mrs. Swearingen, died on Saturday night, the Court was left without a quorum and adjourned. The funeral of Mrs. Swearingen will take place at the residence of Justice Field this afternoon.

Badeau Declines.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Gen. Adam Badeau has positively declined the position of Charge d' Affairs at Denmark. The President will withdraw the nomination.

Nominated.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The President nominated Wm. H. Craig for Postmaster of Albany, N. Y. Craig is the present Postmaster.

XLVII. CONGRESS.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The announcement that Senator Mahone would to-day address the Senate in vindication of his action and in explanation of the principles of the re-adjuster party in Virginia had the effect of drawing to the Capitol a large audience. As early as 10 o'clock the doors leading to the galleries were surrounded by an impatient crowd, and within ten minutes after the door was open every available seat was taken, with the exception of those reserved for members of the diplomatic corps. These were, however, occupied before the hour of convening the Senate. On the floor, in the rear of the Senators' desks, were seated a large number of persons, many of them representatives-elect, while in various corridors those who had the misfortune to arrive late congregated and bewailed their ill-luck. The journal of Saturday having been read, the Vice-President laid before the Senate the resolution for the appointment of Senate officers, stating the Senator from Virginia had the floor.

Senator Mahone commenced his speech by expressing regret that he should be compelled again to interrupt the deliberations of the Senate. "I trust," he said, "the Senators and country will concede that to this seeming forwardness I am provoked. If I may fail to challenge the generous consideration of those who would appear to have found pleasure without justification in their varied and ungenerous assaults, I do not doubt that I shall command the respect of the brave and independent spirits here, as I know I shall among my own people. I shall not complain of the indiscretion which has characterized the manner and method of the Senators in their allusions to me, I must accept that. They comport entirely with their own sense of manly deportment and Senatorial dignity, however little they do with my own. Virginia is accustomed to meet occasions where the independent spirit of the Anglo-Saxon is required to assert itself. Virginia has ever met fortitude and becoming dignity every duty with which destiny has imposed, always, however, with much contempt for small party lines when principle was involved in which her faith and honor was committed. With absolute confidence in my loyalty to her and my devotion to every interest of her people, I will not relax my purpose here to repel every impeachment of my constituents who send me to this chamber. With clearly defined duties which they and I comprehended, I was elected to the U. S. Senate to do their will, not to a caucus to do its bidding. Virginia earned her title of "Old Dominion" by the broad and independent action of her own people, by the loyalty of her sons, by the instinct of independence, and without help at the hands of those who would now interfere with her affairs. However feebly I may express that spirit against the gratuitous care and concern for her opinion of strangers to her trials, to her sacrifices and to her will, I feel that the spirit of her people inspires me when I scornfully repel for them and for myself the ungenerous attempts to "instruct a Virginia Senator as to his duty to them and to himself. Senators should be willing to deal with their constituents. I answer for mine.

To him that would insinuate that my action in regard to the organization of the committees of this body and and the proposed election of officers has been controlled by impure considerations, and I am loth to believe that any Senator has so intended, in the language of another, I say:

"If thou sayest I'm not the peer
To any Lord of Scotland here,
Highland or Lowland, far or near,
Lord Angus, thou hast lied!"

Now permit me to say that the Senators can no more realize my regret that they can measure my amazement that my colleague, Johnston, should have felt it incumbent on himself to join the assaulting column in this chamber. He first introduced the question of my political consistency, or, if he prefers, inconsistency, and next he would introduce me to this honorable body, not as his colleague, but as a repudiator of public obligations. The sense of justice of my fellow Senators renders it necessary for me to apologize for noticing my colleague's criticism on the one hand and his perversions on the other. However much he and his cohorts may endeavor by the cheap logic of an attorney to demonstrate what I ought to be, I am by my connections and my sense of honor what I am. In this particular I have largely the advantage of my colleague, for if I take him by his record, diminutive as it is, he neither knows what he is or what duty he came here to perform. [Laughter.]

Senator Mahone then proceeded to give an exhaustive history of the political and financial history of Virginia for the last decade.

Senator Mahone proclaimed his allegiance to Virginia, not to any party. He was opposed by Bourbonism and Radicalism in Virginia. He declared the colored people part of God's great family and he meant to stand by them until all their rights were secured — until they are given the same opportunity to progress and push forward the whites. Calhoun's dream of a Southern Empire was quenched in blood, and the South accepts the decision. He was here to renew the true allegiance of Virginia to the Union in all truth and sincerity, and would do all in his power to have Virginia resume her place as a royal State. Mahone concluded and Mr. Haaris moved an executive session, which was defeated by the Republicans.

Suppressing Depositions.

An important decision was rendered to-day by Judge Treat in the United States Circuit Court in the suit of R. S. Egbert et al. vs. Citizens' Insurance Company, of Missouri, overruling the motion to suppress depositions. The plaintiffs were copartners doing business in San Francisco, and the Missouri corporation had an established agency there. Its agents drew a bill of exchange on the company, July 12, 1877, for $2,500, on account of a loss sustained under a policy. The bill went to protest and subsequent payments were made to the amount of $1,700. Suit was instituted in the State Court for the balance due. It was removed to the United States Court January, 1880. The plaintiffs gave notice to take depositions which were filed subsequently. The Court finds that the depositions were taken pursuant to section 863, United States revised statutes, and it was held that they were taken in due conformity with the statutes, as appeared from the record, notice and certificates. A party may apply for a dedimus and cause testimony orally to be taken if the dedimus so states, full notice being given to the opposite party or his attorney to appear and cross examine, or to take testimony by interrogatories or cross-interrogatories, filed and settled by the Court. The motion to suppress is overruled.

Question of Jurisdiction.

Judge McCrary, in the United States Court, to-day, rendered a lengthy decision in the suit of Chas. B. Eaton vs. St. Louis Shakspeare Mining and Smelting Company et al. A motion was filed to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction on the ground that the corporation was neither a citizen of nor found in the district within the meaning of the act of Congress defining the jurisdiction of the Circuit Courts of the United states. Judge McCrary says: "We recognize the fact that laws should be made authorizing suits against corporations whenever they may be found doing business, but it must also be conceded that it is the duty of the Legislature and not that of the Courts to make such laws. If the statute of Missouri as it now stands does not authorize such suits to be brought in the Courts of the State, we are not disposed to assert the jurisdiction of this Court. Until the Supreme Court of the State shall have passed upon the question the complainant may have his case continued; otherwise the motion to dismiss will be sustained."

Circuit Court Judgments.

Judgments were entered to-day in the Circuit Court as follows: Wm. Lee vs. Memphis, Carthage and Northwestern Railroad Co., final judgment for plaintiff for $4,132 40; David Dows et al vs. M. Whitty, final judgment for plaintiff for $324 63; Andrew Mackay, Jr., vs. George E. Vail, judgment for possession, one cent damages and $15 monthly value; Thomas Lowery vs. Joseph Shippen, judgment for plaintiff for possession and one cent damages; Reith vs. Lullman, judgment for defendant; John R. Lionberger, assignee, vs. L. A. Coquard, judgment for plaintiff for $553 35; Traer et al. vs. Mullally, judgment for plaintiff for $393 14; Wm. H. Chatfield et al. vs. Robert Flaven et al., judgment for plaintiffs for $4,644 09; P. Conway's administrator vs. S. J. Fisher et al., decree vs. Real Estate Savings Bank; Lenk Wine Company vs. John S. Caspari's administrator, judgment for plaintiff for $311 75. Cougill vs. Fourth National Bank, garnishee; judgment in favor of plaintiff for one cent.

Court of Criminal Correction.

The following cases were disposed of by Judge Cady to-day: Claiborne Doolan was sent to the Work-House for one month on a charge of stealing a sack of oats. In the case of Daniel C. Leary a nolle pross. was entered. The charge was malicious trespass. James W. Browne had an examination on a charge of forgery in the second degree and was discharged. Joseph Kuhne was fined $50 on a charge of slander. John H. Vosburg was fined $5. Wallace Day pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was sentenced to two months in the Work-House.

Legal Notes.

The Public Administrator has taken charge of the estate of E. G. Knowles.

The default docket will be called to-morrow in Circuit Court No. 1, Judge Adams' division.

A suit on account was filed to-day in the Circuit Court by the American Powder Company vs. M. A. Otero and J. C. Sellar.

The will of Charlotte Boehm, bearing date October 22, 1880, was admitted to probate to-day. The daughter receives the property.

Letters of administration were granted to-day to Caroline Schwartz, administratrix of Augusta Schwartz; estate valued at $1,250; likewise to John Sieg, administrator of Gustav G. Sieg; estate valued at $500.

New Warrants.

Joseph McNamara was committed to jail to-day on a charge of petit larceny. Mary Lawler gave bond to answer to a charge of assault and battery. Frederick Cyppell was jailed on a charge of petit larceny.

CITY PERSONALS.

General James Harding came down from Jefferson City last night, and is in the city to-day.

Alice Harrison was present at the Grand Opera-house last evening and enjoyed "Olivette."

Hon. Chas. P. Johnson will arrive from Jefferson City this evening, and will be met at the depot by a number of friends. No important measure advocated by Mr. Johnson has failed to pass, and he is fairly entitled to the honor of having been the "leader" of the House. The eloquent and ornate review of the immigration movement, presented to the Legislature on Saturday, also came from the facile pen of the ex-Lieutenant Governor, who has made the immigration cause his pet hobby during the session.

Overstolz and the Gas Monopoly.

From the St. Louis Republican, February 13, 1876.

Is it not a little curious that the very day after the Council declared Mr. Overstolz entitled to the Mayoralty, a resolution should be introduced to pay the gas companies their monthly bills under the far-famed tripartite agreement. * * * * . We tell the Council plainly that there are some things they cannot do. They may vote any man Mayor they like, but if they attempt to check or weaken the prosecution of the gas suits as started by Mayor Britton, or to trifle with the rights of the city where so large an amount of money is concerned, they will meet consequences entirely unexpected and extremely unpleasant."

CORONER Frank to-day held an inquest on the body of an unknown male floater caught in river yesterday morning at the foot of Miller street. The body is now at the Morgue awaiting identification.

IN the case of Charles Kraedler a jury was sworn and the trial begun in the Criminal Court to-day.

MR. JOHN MCCULLOGH to-day contributed $25 into the treasury of the Mission Immigration Society.

YESTERDAY morning a three-year-old daughter of Henry Valle, who lives at 1209 Madison street, fell out of bed and broke her collar-bone.

HENRY SEIBKE and his son were arraigned before Judge Jecko to-day on charges of disturbing the peace and were fined $20 and $5 respectively.

JOHN CUNNINGHAM made an ineffectual attempt to leave the Criminal Court dock through the skylight this afternoon. It was closed and nailed.

GAMBLING cases against William Clifton, George Taylor, Henry Spinby, George Fountain and Sylvester Chauvain were continued to March 30 for trial at 2 p. m., in the First District Police Court to-day.

YESTERDAY afternoon a negro named John Williams stood on the corner of Tenth and Carr streets and insulted ever passer-by, calling them disrespectable names. He was finally arrested by a detective and this morning Judge Dennison fined him $5.

MARGARET COLLINS appeared before Judge Dennison charged with being a disreputable character and visiting dram shops. The lady bore all traces of having once been smiled on by fortune, and that she had once been beautiful was plainly apparent.

THIS morning Johnny Cullens was before Judge Dennison who fined him $10. Cullens and several other boys were standing in front of Beasly's store, on Broadway near Carr, and a colored man passed by and Cullens filled the negro man's eyes and face with cocoanut juice which he (Cullens) had been chewing.

THIS afternoon Coroner Frank holds an inquest on the body of John Markey, the man who dropped dead in White Carroll's saloon on Fifth, near Elm street. Mr. Carroll offered to send the man to the hospital and pay all the expenses, but he refused to go. Death was the result of abscess of the liver.

FRANK HELMS, aged fifty, came to this city eight days ago, and has not since returned to his home at Plum Hill, Washington county, Ill. Information and a request to look him up have been left with the police. The missing man is about five feet eight inches high, gray hair and chin-whiskers, and wore a steel-gray suit of clothes and black soft hat.

Removal of Causes.

Judge Treat to-day rendered an interesting decision in the United States Circuit Court, sustaining the motion to remand in the suit of the Falls Wire Manufacturing Company vs. Broderick et al. The plaintiff, an Ohio corporation, brought suit in the State Court for less than $300. The defendants filed a counter-claim based on an alleged contract, for the non-performance of which the defendants have sustained damages. The defendants filed a petition for removal of the cause to the United States Court. Judge Treat rules that while the practice acts of the State may prevail as to pleadings under the United States act of 1872, they cannot enlarge or change the United States acts concerning the removal of causes from State courts. The amount in dispute still continues to be what plaintiff claims, and not what by counter-claim the defendant may demand. Louis R. Saturn represented the plaintiff in this case, and Noble & Orrick the defendants.

Off for the Mines.

During the present week John B. Clark, Jr., member of Congress from the Fayette District, and Judge John Hancock, of Austin, Texas, will leave St. Louis with a party of eight or nine prominent capitalists of this place for White Oaks, New Mexico, for the purpose of inspecting and developing some mining property there, and for the purpose of discovering what machinery is required to work their mines. Recent advices received at the St. Louis Mining and Stock Exchange report some recent valuable "findings" in the mining camp mentioned, and some specimens of free gold taken from rich veins there have been received at the Exchange. There is a great rush of strangers to this locality reported.

The Keokuk Packet Case.

Ed. T. Allen appeared in the United States Circuit Court this morning asking for a preliminary injunction in the matter of the petition filed on Saturday by Hutchinson & Anderson, Keokuk stockholders, against Assignee Green and the Packet Company. The Court set Thursday for a hearing of counsel in the matter, and declined to do anything in the case without first having a hearing. Col. Broadhead, for the petitioners who seek to restrain the assignee from interfering with or controlling the property, represented that the Circuit Court was about to turn over the property. Judge McCrary said that in any case no preliminary order would issue in a hearing must be had first. The property is still in the hands of Receiver Clubb.

Corporations in Court.

Judge McCrary this morning, in the United States Court, sustained the motion to remand in the case of Walser et al. vs. Memphis, Carthage and Northwestern Railroad Company. The learned Judge says: "The corporation defendant is a necessary party to a bill to enforce a judgment against it by compelling contribution from its stockholders. All the stockholders are likewise necessary parties if they apply to be heard, to the end that each may be assessed his share only. Hence it is that in this case the controversy is not wholly between citizens of other States, and cannot be finally determined as between them."

Divorce by Default.

Judge Horner's default docket was disposed of this morning and the following matrimonial severances were had: Jacob Olcewsky vs. Juliana Olcewsky, decree of divorce granted plaintiff; Charlotte Brandt vs. Frederick Brandt, decree of divorce granted plaintiff with restoration of maiden name and custody of child. Louise Brown vs. Jacob Brown, decree of divorce for plaintiff with custody of infant child: Wm. Merrill vs. Sarah Merrill, decree of divorce granted plaintiff. The case of Anton vs. Anton was dismissed. The following cases were continued: Link vs Link; Peyinghaus vs Peyinghaus; Stephan vs. Stephan; Eichholz vs. Eichholz; Langley vs. Langley. The case of Reid vs. Reid was dismissed, and in the case of Fanny Fielding Mulhall vs. Wm. Paris Mulhall, the default was set aside and the case continued to next term. Drunkenness, failure to support and abandonment figured largely in the cases disposed of.

Official Stenographer Appointed.

At the meeting of the Criminal Court this morning, Mr. Charles A. Taylor was appointed stenographer, in accordance with the provisions of an act passed by the last General Assembly. Mr. Taylor is a well-known gentleman, and though he had several competitors he obtained the position. He took the oath of office and enters upon his duties at once. The position is worth $1,800 a year.

Railroad Meetings.

To-morrow afternoon the St. Louis Association of General Passenger Agents will hold a meeting at the Indianapolis and St. Louis offices, on Third and Chestnut streets. At the same place, but later in the day, a meeting will be held of the General Passenger Agents of the Western Trunk Line Association. It is not known that anything of special importance will come before either meeting.

AN EAST ST. LOUIS THUG.

Police Officer Pat O'Neill Again Commits an Act of Lawlessness and Oppression.

Officer Pat O'Neill, of East St. Louis, once more figures conspicuously in a lawless act, committed under the guise of discharging his duty as a police officer. The victim this time is a Mr. McKnistry, a member of the sporting fraternity. McKnistry is the possessor of two dramatic dogs, which he values at $500. Of late his show has not been on a paying basis and the result is that McKnistry finds himself in trouble. About three weeks ago the company were advertised to show in Belleville. The inhabitants turned out in large numbers, and everything went smoothly till it was time to raise the curtains, when it was ascertained that Mr. Long, the door-keeper, had taken the last train for St. Louis, and with him all the door receipts. Just as McKnistry was about to follow him, some of the parties who had advanced money on the show, took possession of his dogs. Mr. Busby, a St. Louis friend, came to his assistance, payed the bills and took the dogs to St. Louis. McKnistry entered into an engagement to play at the Globe Theater but Busby refused to turn over the dogs. McKnistry replevined them and was about to fulfill his engagement when Busby tried to have them replevined from McKnistry.

McKnistry started to East St. Louis, thence to Venice where he remained till last night, when he intended starting for Chicago. About half a mile above the Junction he was confronted by two men, one of whom pulled a large revolver, and placing it to McKnistry's ear, told him if he so much as moved his brains would be scattered along the track. McKnistry, thinking robbery was intended, threw up his hands and invited his assailants to search him. He was informed by the man with the revolver, who was no other than Pat O'Neill, that his dogs were all that was wanted, and "I demand you to give them up right away." "Have you any authority to rob me in this manner?" the man with the dogs ventured to ask. "None of your d——d business," O'Neil replied. Just then Busby rushed up, and McKnistry was held by O'Neill while Busby took the dogs. McKnistry was then dragged to the station, searched and shoved in a cell. This morning O'Neill came to him, opened the cell and endeavored to bulldoze him into leaving the city. McKnistry refused to leave till he was released by the proper authorities. He then immediately procured counsel to enter suit against O'Neill for false imprisonment for the purpose of robbing him out of his property. Mr. Smith, McKinistry's counsel, of the opinion that it was a put up job, as the affray took place outside the limits of East St. Louis and outside the authority of East St. Louis Police, even if there was just reason for arrest. The probabilities are that before this matter is fully ventilated Mr. O'Neill will be relieved of the responsibilities of a police officer, as the Council have a few charges against him to consider this evening.

WATER SUPERINTENDENTS.

Initial Meeting for the Organization of a National Society in St. Louis.

A movement is on foot for the organization of a National Association of Water Works Superintendents. The initial meeting will be held in this city to-morrow, in one of the lecture rooms of the Washington University, corner of Seventeenth street and Washington avenue, commencing at 10 o'clock. There is at present no association of this kind in the United States, and it is not certain that one will now be formed. Mr. Stripes, superintendent of the water-works at Keokuk, Ia., recently conceived the idea of forming this association after the plan of the Society of American Civil Engineers, and entered into a correspondence with many of his brethren in various parts of the country upon the subject. The response was favorable, and thereupon Mr. Stripes, with the concurrence of a number of gentlemen prominent as water works engineers, issued the call for the present meeting, when the subject of a permanent organization will be discussed, and, if the attendance is large enough to warrant it, a plan for that purpose will be submitted. There are about 300 water works superintendents in the United States, embracing some of the best professional talent of the country. It is thought by holding annual meetings and by the interchange of ideas, and by the exhibition of various apparatus and devices, a great deal of benefit to the members may be derived. The present meeting will determine whether the effort can be made successful or not. Mr. Stripes has not yet arrived in the city, but he is expected this evening. Prof. C. A. Smith, of Washington University, stated to a reporter of the POST-DISPATCH to-day, that an application had been made to procure a hall in which to hold the meeting, but he was not a promoter of the movement, nor was any of engineers of St. Louis, though, so far as he knew all of them were favorable to such an organization. He was not at all certain that the proposed meeting would be successful, and he would be inclined to think the attendance would not be large. There will be an exhibition of pipes and various appliances and devices for water works during the progress of the meeting, which will probably last from two to three days, the length of time being determined by the attendance.

Caught.

Jeff, alias "Red" Smith, a young man of unsavory reputation, made his way through a rear window of the Thistle saloon, Ninth and St. Charles streets, early this morning. Andy Kirke, the proprietor, was awakened, grappled the burglar and turned him over to Sergeant Broderick. After the arrest it turned out that Kirke had no weapon, whereupon "Red" expressed regret that he hadn't used a knife which he was carrying in his sleeve.

INSPECTION OF BOOKS.

Courts Have No Right to Grant a General Order.

Judge Thayer this morning rendered an important decision in the case of Herman et al. vs. Wacker, involving an application for an order of court to examine and take copies of the defendants' books. In this case the defendants had been sued by the plaintiffs under a writ of attachment on the ground that the debt was fraudulently contracted. The Court thinks that proceedings which look to the invasion of the private writings and books of a party should be kept strictly within the letter of the law. The statute gives the Court power to grant an inspection and permission to take a copy of a paper in the possession of the defendant, but this cannot be construed to authorize the Court to issue a general search-warrant against the books and papers of defendant, no matter how beneficial or material to the plaintiff such warrant might prove. As the present application contemplates a general examination and inspection of the defendant's books, to be conducted privately by the plaintiff the application is overruled and the order denied. If a party litigant desires to compel the production of of books and papers of his opponent, he should proceed under sections 3,644 and 3,654 under which the examination is had in the presence of the Court, and it is limited only to such matters as are considered relevant.

Assignee's Rights.

Bateson, Bowling & Co., of this city, dry goods commission merchants, accepted a draft on certain shipments, but failed before the draft came due. The goods had been sold to Ely, Walker & Co., and the assignee claimed the proceeds. Steiger & Co., who shipped the goods, also claimed the proceeds and offered to give up the acceptance. In a triangular case brought by Ely, Walker & Co. against both claimants, Judge Boyle this morning decided in favor of Steiger & Co., upon the surrender of the acceptance. H. E. Mills appeared for Steiger & Co., and C. H. Krum for the assignee.

'CHANGE GOSSIP.

John A. Warner, agent of the Great Western Dispatch Line, was on 'Change to-day, after six weeks of severe illness.

The flour men on 'Change have already commenced talking up their annual excursion, when they for one day bid adieu to business cares and with their families and friends spend a happy time on the river and in the woods. These annual excursions have become one of the events of the season, and the flour men have determined that the one this year will surpass all the preceding for pure enjoyment.

Among the exports from New Orleans, as posted on 'Change to day, was a lot of wheat destined for Dunkirk. This Dunkirk is in France, up in the northeast corner, near the Prussian border, and is a seaport town: but it has such a Scotch name that it is safe to say nearly every one who saw it posted thought sure that this wheat was shipped to Scotland. At any rate, three-fourths of the members who were asked where that Dunkirk was, answered "Scotland." Some very wild guesses were made, one party saying "Illinois," another "Iowa," and still another, "opposite Dubuque."

The bulls are bound to have the wheat crop ruined, if letters from the country and newspaper reports will do it, but somehow or another the market fails to scare, but on the contrary, continues to decline, and the bear element to rule the roost. These damage reports are so frequently contradicted and stand so little inquiry into that most operators put little, if any faith in them. A sample of these contradictory reports was that coming from two parties from the same county, who were on 'Change last week. One of them stated that "timber wheat was badly damaged;" the other said "prairie wheat was in fine condition." Now, how wheat on an exposed prairie could be uninjured and wheat protected by timber be damaged passes comprehension. These reports of damage to the crop are heard every year, but the severity of the past winter affords the bulls better opportunity of "ruining" the crop than for several years past. It is pretty safe to assert that the largely increased acreage of the present crop will more than offset any damage there may be.

EAST ST. LOUIS.

John B. Carroll has consented to become an independent candidate for school trustee.

The usual number of drunks in the street occupied cells in the station this morning.

The City Council will hold a special meeting to-night for the purpose of finishing business brought up at the last meeting. Several old claims are expected to be allowed, and a thorough overhauling, of course, of the police officers is expected.

August Lawrence, who was arrested and sent to jail last Friday for tearing down Bryan's fence, was released to-day, his friends furnishing the necessary bond. A large delegation under the leadership of Louis Gross, will make another attack on the blockade tonight.

NORTH ST. LOUIS LOCALS.

To-morrow night the Lumber Pilers Union will meet at Krienbaum's Hall, Fifteenth and Bremen avenue, for the election of officers.

A horse attached to the buggy of Dr. E. D. Bernied ran away this morning on Fifteenth and Kossuth avenue, the result being $10 damage to the buggy.

This evening the Young Ladies Social Club will serve their last oyster supper of the season at the residence of E. G. Menning, 3619 N. Fourteenth street.

A MUSICAL and literary entertainment will be given in the parlors of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, corner of Washington and Ewing avenues, to-morrow evening, commencing at eight o'clock, for the benefit of the Young People's and Bible School prayer meetings. An interesting programme has been arranged, consisting of songs and recitations, and embracing a wide range of local talent.

RIVER NEWS.

THE Josephine leaves for Keokuk to-morrow. B. A. Conger commands.

AMONG the first boats due are the Ed. Richardson, Illinois and W. P. Halliday.

THE New Orleans Anchor Line will dispatch the City of Alton for New Orleans on Wednesday.

THE fine sidewheel steamer Fannie Lewis, Capt. R. J. Whitledge, backs out for the Missouri River to-morrow.

ED. BUCKLEY goes steward on the new St. Paul packet, which Capt. Lourey is building here. She will be a daisy.

CAPT. JOHN W. CANNON and family, of New Orleans, are passengers on the Ed. Richardson. They go to Kentucky.

THE M. V. T. Company will dispatch a tow to New Orleans to-morrow. Other towboats with barges will move southward soon.

THE Carrier is discharging about the bridge and follows the Dakotah to Pittsburg in the Big 7 Line. A. J. McConnell commands.

CAPT. BILLY EVANS will back out the large and commodious steamer Dacotah for Pittsburg to-morrow. Jenkins & Sass, agents.

THE new Belle of Memphis came in on good time this morning, looking as beautiful as a bride. Capt. Lennox knows how to take care of a steamboat.

THE departures this evening will include the John B. Maude for Memphis, Arkansas for Keokuk, Mary Bryan for Hermann, and Calhoun for Naples.

THE Upper Mississippi opens slowly this year. Boats should now be running to Dubuque or higher, whereas Keokuk has not yet been reached.

THE steamer Eclipse, running between Louisville and New Orleans in 1853, was, probably, the longest steamboat ever built. She was 365 feet long.

THE Henry Frank, of the Memphis and New Orleans line, is the largest steamer afloat. Her capacity is 2,600 tons, or 300 tons more than that of any other boat.

COM. COULSON, who with his family has been in Pittsburg spending some time visiting relatives and friends, expected to leave for his home in the far West (Yankton) last Saturday.

THE Marine Cooks and Pastry Cooks' association at Cincinnati held a meeting Wednesday night, and elected John Connelly to fill the position of vice-president made vacant by the death of Thomas Burns. The annual election of officers occurs in June.

THE Memphis Avalanche says: The lumbermen's advices from their pineries in the North warn them to prepare for a freshet unprecedented in the history of the river. The whole vast region embraced in the northern part of the water-shed of the Mississippi is covered with snow from three to six feet deep, which, when it melts, must come down through this narrow channel.

THE river here is about stationary but it will be booming again soon, as a big rise is coming down the Missouri, and the Mississippi is expected soon to follow suit, as the heavy snow covers the Northwest which must soon melt and produce results. From Cairo down the water is approaching the danger line and threatens to reach it soon. To sum up the situation it looks rather gloomy for the lower river plantations.

THE total number of Government lights on the Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri Rivers is 819; total cost of maintaining them during the last fiscal year was $128,000; average cost per light, $156 28; estimated cost for maintaining lights during this fiscal year, $150,000. The light-house system of the country is divided into fifteen districts, and the total cost for this year is $2,184,000, which includes expenses of all kinds. Of this sum $206,925 is for light-house and fog signals. There are 3,115 buoys in position.

THE Peoria Democrat says: "We are in receipt of a letter from George C. Wolff, of the Illinois River Packet Company, dated St. Louis, March 18, in which he states that he intended to leave St. Louis Saturday evening, and arrive here Sunday afternoon with the new and elegant side-wheel steamer Illinois, which is to run between this city and St. Louis this season. As the boat has not yet arrived, we presume that it was delayed by Saturday's storm. In his letter Mr. Wolff says: 'I want you and your friends to give the steamer a big boom on her arrival there. I think she will be the fastest boat that ever landed at Peoria, and the finest boat that has been there for years. I want the Peoria folks to patronize and keep her in the trade. Of course, if they do not support her she cannot live there, but I don't see any reason why two large cities like Peoria and St. Louis, with a beautiful river, cannot support a fine side-wheel boat. She will be commanded by Capt. E. W. Gould, Jr., a nice young gentleman and a stranger in your trade, and clerked by Wm. Pritchard, who is also a very worthy young man.'"

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE CITY

For local and telegraphic news see inside pages.

WE want no Ten-year tenure in the Mayor's office of St. Louis.

WE beg to be excused for making a few remarks about local politics to-day.

TO the polls this evening, Democrats, and vote for anti-OVERSTOLZ delegates!

TO imitate the editorial profanity of the hour, we might remark that the Republican was sired in 1808 and dam'd by everybody.

THE movement in behalf of a World's Fair will interfere with our Sprinkling Enterprise this Spring. Still, the streets should be sprinkled.

THE Democratic graves have opened again, and there has been a general resurrection of ballot-box stuffers and ward bummers in the interest of OVERSTOLZ and Reform.

IN the Eighteenth Ward the anti-OVERSTOLZ Democrats oppose the Contractors' ticket with a ticket headed by such responsible gentlemen as SAMUEL KENNARD and WEB. SAMUEL.

IF Republican votes can be caught by placing an old Republican at the head of the Democratic municipal ticket, how would it do for the Convention to-morrow to nominate an out-and-out Republican ticket?

HAVING thrown off all sneaking disguise, the KNAPPS commenced their old game of bull-dozing this morning. They are never so happy as when dragging the Democratic party up to a general slaughter.

THERE is one thing to be said in favor of the KNAPPS—they are very faithful and constant in their attachments when they are benefitted thereby. MR. OVERSTOLZ' favors to the family are fully appreciated.

SO long as MR. OVERSTOLZ remains in the Mayor's office, so long will the MACADAM ring continue to furnish St. Louis with streets that change with kaleidescopic rapidity from sloughs of mud to deserts of dust.

THE primaries are open to-day from 12 to 8 p. m. Let every Democrat who endorses the sentiments of the POST-DISPATCH go to the polls and vote in accordance therewith. If this is done, OVERSTOLZISM will be ended in St. Louis politics.

IN the First Ward the Anti-OVERSTOLZ Democrats have a delegate ticket headed by Col. PRATT, of Barnum's Hotel, and Capt. TYLER, of the firm of BLOCK, TYLER & CO. The ticket should be generously supported by the people who are anxious to throw off the Ring Yoke.

The POST-DISPATCH is not in partnership with the municipal rings that are marshalled under the banner of OVERSTOLZ, but it has a much larger circulation in St. Louis than the Republican, and it has considerable influence among people who do not live by stealing. This fact will be demonstrated before the birds sing.

A RE-ELECTION would give MR. OVERSTOLZ ten years of the Mayoralty of St. Louis. Isn't that a long lease of power to give one man? Is there no other citizen worthy of this honor? For our own part—and we have considerable liking for MR. OVERSTOLZ personally—we object to the eternal greasing of a fat hog. Let MR. O. be sent to join GEN. GRANT.

BACKED by the OVERSTOLZ army of taxeaters and the political jobbers of the municipal rings the Republican crowd may succeed in forcing a third-term Republican candidate for Mayor upon the Democratic party of St. Louis, but it is well at this crisis to recall history. The St. Louis Democrats have never supported HENRY OVERSTOLZ, and they never will.

NEARLY every argument that the Republican has thus far advanced in behalf of OVERSTOLZ was used last year in favor of a third term for GEN. GRANT. The same arguments can be used four years hence. The greed of OVERSTOLZ is more striking than that of GRANT, for he is in office while begging for a third term, and is using his power and his patronage to perpetuate himself.

OF course there will be no difficulty about getting GEN. GRANT to accept the Presidency of the St. Louis World's Fair. His long residence here and the pleasant memories which surround the old wood farm on the Gravois road have attached him fondly to St. Louis. Besides, St. Louis is on the great through route to Mexico, and the General is very much interested just now in developing Mexico.

IF the Democrats of St. Louis who are opposed to OVERSTOLZISM in politics will turn out to the polls this evening and work and vote for the right kind of men, they can save their party from the humiliation of indorsing a Republican and a Third-Termer for Mayor. OVERSTOLZ can be overwhelming'y beaten in the Convention to-morrow, if the opposition sentiment will only come to the front and fight as the Ringsters are fighting.

THE Republican divides its eulogistic hogwash quite evenly between OVERSTOLZ and JAY GOULD. Notwithstanding the political pressure, the KNAPPS count that day lost whose slowly upheaving sun does not find a slobbering paragraph about GOULD in their turgid columns. It is evident that there is a scheme on foot to squeeze JAY or raise the rental of the rooms occupied by him in the Republican Mausoleum.

MR. CONKLING hasn't exactly proclaimed himself President of the United States, but he has served notice on MR. GARFIELD that he doesn't propose to be ignored in the matter of directing public affairs. The great internecine fight which is to destroy the Republican party has fairly opened.

IT is noticeable that the St. Louis Republican always has a candidate to force upon the Democratic party. Although a professed organ of the party, it discriminates against worthy members of the organization at every election. With the insolent, dictatorial spirit of a negro slave-driver, it is always telling the party who it must nominate in every struggle, from ward officers to President of the United States. It is this sort of thing that is gradually running down the circulation and destroying the business patronage of Old 1808.

THE Republican has no sympathy with the idea that because a man has, in the course of his life, encountered some enmities, he is therefore unfit for public service.—[Republican.

You can well afford to proclaim doctrine of this kind, for the adoption of a rule of this character would forever confine the KNAPP family to the barren moors of private life. It is doubtful whether any of the humble employes of the Republican would have the nerve to gaze, even furtively, with longing and covetous eyes upon the vacant chairs in the United States Senate Chamber, if the mere "encountering of enmities" should work ineligibility.

SEVEN GOOD REASONS.

If MR. OVERSTOLZ should be re-elected to be a ten-years Mayor he will owe it entirely to the fraudulently obtained Democratic nomination. If he receives that nomination he will owe it entirely to the following persons and influences who are moving heaven and earth to pack the primaries and elect OVERSTOLZ delegates:

First—SOC NEWMAN, general manager of the St. Louis Gas Company.

Second—ERASTUS WELLS, JOHN W. MAXON et al., representing both the street railroad interests and the Laclede Gas Company.

Third—CHARLES W. FRANCIS, representing the bread and butter brigade of 3,000 office-holders who draw over $2,200,000 of salaries out of the city treasury.

Fourth—ED. BUTLER, representing the lowest, most selfish and basest methods in city politics.

Fifth—JIM HARDY, the slop contractor, JERRY FRUIN, the Macadam and other city contractors, and those generally who supply the numerous city institutions.

Sixth—GEORGE KNAPP, who has sons and sons-in-law billeted upon nearly all the offices of the city.

Seventh—Dirty-Dog DAENZER, who does not even pretend to be a Democrat, and who, after a loud and foul-mouthed career as a great teacher of American politics for nearly forty years, only became an American citizen on the 22d of October last.

These are seven good reasons why MR. Overstolz should not be re-elected. It was never contemplated that the Mayor of this city should be selected by the monopolies, corporations, jobbers, office-holders, contractors and selfish interests that need careful watching. Their open choice is MR. OVERSTOLZ, and that is in itself enough to lead to his repudiation by the people, no matter what packed conventions may do, or how many counterfeit Democratic nominations he may obtain.

THERE is disunion, discontent and utter lack of harmony in the ranks of the Democracy of St. Louis to-day. The man who is responsible for this state of affairs is HENRY OVERSTOLZ. Backed by a jobbing newspaper and a gang of Democratic longshoremen, who do not hesitate to burn false signals when there is a chance to secure a wreck, he has labored to pervert the party in this city to his own personal uses. Under the plea of being indispensable to the welfare of the city he proposes to make himself the candidate of a party with which he has no affiliation, and a party that has never recognized any sense of obligation to him. He is responsible for the OVERSTOLZ and the anti-OVERSTOLZ wings, and if by any chance he should be re-elected the split would be continued. Nay, the party breach would be continually widened. If re-elected, MR. OVERSTOLZ will owe everything to Republican votes. He is too shrewd a politician to not appreciate the importance of rewarding his friends. He will continue to divide his patronage in such a way as to offend the rank and file of Democracy, and we shall have no end of feud and faction. The Democratic party of St. Louis is strong enough and honest enough to elect a manly, outspoken Democratic Mayor and it will do it if the jackals marshaled by the mangy, debilitated toothless old lion of the Republican will only give it a chance.

EVERY man conversant with the history of the Scheme and Charter knows full well that it contained originally a clause restricting a Mayor to one term. For this reason the term of office was fixed at four years. For this reason the Mayor was invested with such powers as were never before conferred upon the Mayor of a city of the first class. Through some palpable swindle this clause was omitted from the Charter at the critical moment. MR. OVERSTOLZ proposes to defy the will of the people. With the immense power that was conferred upon him, and which it was never intended he should use in perpetuating himself, he proposes to force himself upon the Democratic ticket. With his 3,000 followers, paid from the treasury of the people, he is preparing to mob the Democratic party of St. Louis to-morrow. Once honored with a nomination by a packed convention, he will depend on the feetishism of "regular nomineism" to drag the Democracy of the city up to his support. The Democratic party owes MR. OVERSTOLZ nothing and it will not vote for him.

AFTER MR. OVERSTOLZ has been nominated as a Ten-year Mayor by a packed, unrepresentative Democratic Convention, the old truncheon-flourishers who hang out at the Castle of Despair, corner of Third and Chestnut streets, will begin yelling about the importance of standing by the regular nominee. They will talk about an attainder of treason for all Democrats who will refuse to bow down to the cap of MR. GESLER OVERSTOLZ on a pole. They will undertake to show that if Democratic supremacy in St. Louis is once lost it will never be regained. This will be promptly recognized as bosh by all intelligent voters. The upper branch of the Municipal Assembly has power to impeach and remove a Mayor. It confirms all the Mayor's appointments, and without its co-operation the Mayor is as helpless and pitiable as old age withered with fever. The Democrats only lack one of having a majority of this Board, and there are seven new members to be elected on the 5th prox. It is natural to suppose that of this number the Democrats will secure one. With the House of Lords in the hands of the Democrats, the election of MR. EWING would hardly be in the nature of a political calamity. The party could survive it better than it could the election of OVERSTOZ, a man utterly without Democratic antecedents, sympathies or views, because there would be no demoralization or humiliation connected with it.

THE Republican points with swelling pride to the delegate ticket presented to the voters of the Eighteenth Ward this evening in behalf of OVERSTOLZ. It is as follows: JOHN W. HARRISON, ROLLA WELLS, M. DOUGHERTY, JAMES T. WALSH and JOHN M. SELLARS. Personally these gentlemen are far superior to the people selected by the KNAPPS as a rule to carry out their schemes in conventions, but it is not strange that they should be coming to the front for the Kaiser at this crisis. MR. HARRISON is an iron dealer and a seeker after contracts with the city. MR. DOUGHERTY is a grocer, and he furnishes groceries to the city institutions. MR. SELLARS is in the roofing business and the city calls on him occasionally to do odd jobs of roofing. MR. WELLS is not a contractor, but he represents the street railroad monopolies; and the street railroad people have much to thank MR. OVERSTOLZ for. All the city contractors are for OVERSTOLZ, from the man who gathers the slops to the chief of the Macadam street ring.

THEY are still in trouble over in Cincinnati about their $18,000,000 Southern Railway. Col. N. L. ANDERSON, a wealthy citizen and a representative of one of the largest tax-paying families of the city, in giving his views to a Times-Star reporter, says: "My general views regarding the Southern Road are well known. I opposed it from the first and yet think the action was unwise. If you really want my opinion I will give it to you. I should say trade it for a yellow dog, and then kill the dog." "It may be inferred from this that the great Southern Road is not regarded with affection by every æsthetic Cincinnatian. If Col. ANDERSON'S advice is accepted and the road is traded for a yellow dog, we will make an effort to secure the animal for exhibition at the St. Louis World's Fair.

A TELEGRAM from Rome brings intelligence that will create some consternation in religious circles. It is said that notwithstanding the fact that great quantities of sacred relics, in the shape of the bones of Saints, have been shipped to this country, not a body has been taken from the catacombs for thirty years. The Pope has ordered a strict inquiry to be made into the nefarious and sacrilegious traffic with a view of putting a stop to it. Large numbers of Catholic Churches in this country have been supplied with bones of martyrs by an organized ring of Roman swindlers.

A Growl at the Bakers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Your POST-DISPATCH has exposed a great deal of fraud and deception. Really the bakers of this city should be looked after. They make their bread just as it suits themselves, and really there is not at the present prices of flour two cents worth of bread in their five cent loaf. They give twenty-eight and thirty loaves for $1, and the grocers sell it at a profit of 40 to 50 per cent, and the poor people have to submit to it, when their money does not sometimes exceed twenty-five cents. Now at present good baker's flour sells $4 50 to $6 a barrel, and yet the bakers do not make their bread any larger than when flour is $8 and $9 per barrel. There should be some law to reach the bakers, as I consider them more imposition than lotteries.

Respectfully, etc.,
P. MACKLIN.

The Notarial Law.

ST. LOUIS, March 28, 1881.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Will you state for the benefit of one of the victims the date on which notarial commissions will expire, under the law just passed, and oblige A SUBSCRIBER.

[The old notaries will be functus officio ten days after the law goes into effect. As a period of ninety days must elapse before the law goes into effect, it follows that the grand army of notaries will surrender without discretion one hundred days after the signing of the bill.—ED. P.-D.]

A Legislator to be Proud Of.

From the Columbia (Mo.) Herald.

EX-Lieutenant-Governor Charles P. Johnson of St. Louis, the Chevalier Bayard of the House, a man no less marked for his great oratorical power than for high personal character and courageous and liberal views upon all subjects, has been the steadfast and aggressive champion of the University during the entire session. His speech in the Democratic caucus of the two houses a few weeks since, in which he plainly stated that the Democratic party in Missouri could not afford to enter the next campaign without it having given the University all it needed for sustenance and room, undoubtedly aided in bringing the Democratic members in the body to a recognition of the necessity of such action.

Sabbath Breaking in Cincinnati.

From the Sunday Commercial.

Alarming as it may seem to Deacon Richard Smith, and a few other Scotch and Irish gentlemen, there is to be a lecture this afternoon at Pike's Opera-House.

Mahone's New Position.

From the New York World.

It is understood that Senator Mahone has been promised the appointment of Solicitor-General in the Treachery Department.

LAWS IN LEGION.

What the Missouri Legislature Has Accomplished.

Resume of All the Important Acts Enacted.

The Gambling, Lottery, Notary, Obscene Literature Laws, etc., in Full.

Succinct Synopsis of the Measures of the Session Closed To-Day.

The Legislature of Missouri, which convened on January 5, by a concurrent resolution dissolved to-day. This body has not been remarkable for the quality of its work, though nothing can be said to the prejudice of these statesmen in regard to the quantity of it. It has succeeded in passing some enactments of value to the people, and some others whose benefits are not conspicuous.

The measures of most general interest and of the greatest local importance are given in full or briefly mentioned below:

CHARITABLE INSURANCE.

The Mott bill, making benevolent or charitable associations also insurance companies, provides:

SECTION 1. No benevolent or charitable association or society now incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this State, or of any other State or Territory of the United States, which shall issue any certificate to or make any promise or agreement with its members, whereby any sum of money or benefit is to become due or payable to its sick or disabled members, or on the decease of a member, solely from the proceeds of assessment or dues collected from the members thereof, shall be deemed an insurance company or subject to the general insurance laws of this State.

An act relative to the change of venue in St. Louis city, requiring the case to go to the Circuit Courts of the city before it can be taken out.

Repealing the present dog law.

Relating to the service of summons on foreign companies.

In relation to the bogus butter, as follows:

SECTION 1. Whoever manufactures out of any oleaginous substances, or any compound of the same, other than produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, any article designed to take the place of butter or cheese, produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same; or shall sell or offer for sale the same as an article of food shall, on conviction thereof, be confined in the county jail not exceeding one year, or fined not exceeding $1,000, or both.

NOTARIES.

In relation to Notaries:

SECTION 1. The Governor shall appoint and commission, in all cities having a population of 100,000 inhabitants or more, one Notary Public only to every 3,500 inhabitants in said cities; providing, that Notaries, when receiving their commissions as such, and before qualifying for such, pay into the treasury of the State, to the use of the common school fund, the sum of $25 each.

SEC. 2. The Notaries Public so appointed and commissioned shall be men of good moral character, and shall possess all the qualifications and exercise all the duties heretofore provided by law for Notaries Public, and shall give bond in the sum of $10,000; such bond to be given under the provisions of section 6, 463 of chapter 134 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Missouri.

SEC. 3. The last national census preceding each appointment shall be taken as a basis upon which to make said appointment of Notaries Public, and the Governor shall only appoint and commission persons as Notaries Public when it shall appear to him that the numbers of Notaries Public in all cities having a population of 100,000 inhabitants is less than the number authorized to be appointed by this act.

SEC. 4. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed, and the office of any Notary Public in such city holding a commission bearing date prior to the passage of this act, and whose term of office as such Notary Public has not expired at the time this act becomes a law, shall be abolished at the expiration of ten days after the taking effect of this act; and every person who shall act, or assume to act, as Notary Public after his office shall be thus vacated, or after his term shall have expired, or without legal authority to act as a Notary Public, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

THE LOTTERY BILL.

The "Lottery Bill," amending section 1,566 of the statutes, provides:

If any person shall make or establish, or aid of assist in making or establishing, any lottery, gift enterprise, policy or scheme of drawing in the nature of a lottery as a business or avocation in this State, or shall advertise or make public, or caused to be advertised or made public by means of any newspapers, pamphlets, circulars or other written or printed notice thereof printed in this State, any such lottery, gift enterprise, policy or scheme or drawing in the nature of a lottery, whether the same is being or is to be conducted, held or drawn within or without this State, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years, or by imprisonment in County Jail or Work-house for not less than six or more than twelve months.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

The "landlord and tenant" bill provides:

SEC. 3,098. Procedure to recover possession; statement to contain what; summons to issue.—Whenever any rent has become due and payable, and payment has been demanded by the landlord or his agent from the lessee or person occupying the premises, and payment thereof has not been made, the landlord or his agent may file a statement, verified by affidavit, with any justice of the peace in the township in which the property is situated, or if the same shall be in a city having over one hundred thousand inhabitants, then with a justice of the peace in the ward or district in which the property is situated, and in which such justice shall have been elected or appointed, setting forth the terms on which the said property was rented, and the amount of rent actually due to such landlord; that the same has been demanded from the tenant, lessee or person occupying the premises, and that payment has not been made, and particularly describing the property rented or leased; and thereupon such justice shall issue a summons, directed to such tenant or lessee, and to all persons occupying the premises, by name, requiring them to appear before him upon a day to be therein named, and show cause why possession of the property should not be restored to the plaintiff; provided that all cases where the justice of the peace in any such district is interested in the result of the suit, the suit may be brought in any adjoining district.

GAMBLING HOUSES.

The Johnson bill prohibiting renting houses for gambling purposes amends section 1,549 R. S. to read as follows:

SEC. 1,549. Houses used for gambling, etc.—Every person who shall permit any gaming-table, bank or device to be set up or used for the purpose of gaming in any house, building, shed, booth, shelter, lot or other premises to him belonging or by him occupied, or of which he hath, at the time, the possession or control, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by imprisonment in the county jail or work-house for not more than one year nor less than thirty days.

THE FILING OF ABSTRACTS.

The bill in relation to the filing of abstracts provides:

SECTION 1. No judgment hereafter rendered by any court in a city having over 100,000 inhabitants shall be a lien on real estate situate in such city until an abstract of said judgment shall be entered in a book, to be kept by the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of civil causes within such city, and which shall state in ruled columns—first the names of the parties; second, the date; third, the nature of the judgment or decree; fourth, the amount of the debt, damages and costs; fifth, the book and page in which it is entered; sixth, the satisfaction or other disposition thereof, with the necessary space for notes thereon. The liens of all judgments entered in said book as herein provided for shall have priority according to the period of their respective entries in said book, such period being deemed the period of time within which the abstract thereof should be furnished to the clerk of such Circuit Court under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of each of the clerks of all courts of record in such city, within five days after the rendition of any final judgment in their respective courts, to furnished an abstract thereof as provided above to the clerk of said circuit court, who shall immediately upon the same day enter the same on the abstract as aforesaid, and said clerk shall enter the same when the abstract of said judgment shall be furnished to him by any party interested or his agent; and each of said clerks and their sureties shall be respectively liable for any damage occasioned by any neglect to perform the duties hereby required of them respectively, and they shall each receive a fee of twenty-five cents for each judgment for his services in relation thereto, which shall be taxed and collected as other costs in the case.

OBSCENE LITERATURE.

The act for the suppression of obscene literature provides:

SECTION 1. Whosoever sells, or offers for sale, or gives away or exhibits or circulates with or without intention to sell or give away, any obscene, lewd or indecent or lascivious book, pamphlet, paper, drawing, lithographing, engraving, picture, photograph, model, cast, instrument or article of indecent or immoral use, or medicine for procuring abortion or preventing conception, or advertise the same for sale, or writes or prints any letter, circular, hand-bill, card, book pamphlet, advertisement, or notice of any kind giving information, directly or indirectly, when, where, how, or by what means any of the articles or things hereinbefore mentioned can be purchased or otherwise obtained or made, shall, on conviction thereof, be find not more than one thousand dollars nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned not more that one year in the county jail, or both; but nothing in this section can be construed so as to affect teaching in regular medical colleges, or public standard medical book, or the practice of regular practitioners of medicine, or druggists in their legitimate business.

SEC. 2. Whoever deposits in any post-office within this State, or places in charge of any person to be carried or conveyed, any of the obscene, lewd, indecent or lascivious articles or things named in section 1 of this act, or any circular, hand-bill, card, advertisement, book, pamphlet, or notice of any kind, giving information directly or indirectly, when, how, where or by what means any of the articles or things mentioned in section 1 of this act can be purchased or obtained, or knowingly or willfully receives the same to carry and convey, or knowingly carries or conveys the same in any manner, except in the United States mail, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than one thousand dollars, nor less than fifty, or imprisonment not more than one year in the county jail, or both.

SEC. 3. All articles of raw material found in the possession of any person or persons intending to manufacture the same into articles or things described in the first section of this act, and also all tools, machinery, implements, instruments and personal property found in the place or building where the articles described in the first section of this act are found or seized, and used or intended to be used in the manufacture of such articles or things, may be seized and shall be forfeited; and the proceedings to enforce such forfeiture shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem before the court of record of criminal jurisdiction having jurisdiction of the crime specified in the first section of this act, in the city or county wherein the arrest or seizure was made.

SEC. 4. If any person shall print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, in any newspaper in this state, any advertisement of any secret drug or nostrum purporting to be for the use of females, or if any druggist or other person shall sell or keep for sale, or shall give away any such secret drug or nostrum purporting to be for the use of females, or if any person shall, by printing or writing, or in any other way, publish an account or description of any drug, medicine, instrument or apparatus for the purpose of preventing conception, producing abortion or miscarriage, shall, or by writing or printing, or any circular, newspapher, pamphlet or book, or in any other way publish or circulate any obscene notice, or shall, within this State, keep for sale or gratuitous distribution any secret drug, nostrum or medicine for the purpose of preventing conception, procuring abortion or miscarriage, such person or persons so violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months, or both at the discretion of the court: Provided, nothing in this act shall be construed to effect teaching in regularly chartered medical colleges, or the publication of standard medical books.

THE GAMBLING LAW.

The gambling law is as follows:

SEC. 1547. Every person who shall set up or keep any table or gambling device commonly called A. B. C., faro bank, E. O., roulette, equality, keno, or any kind of gambling table or gambling device adapted, devised and designed for the purpose of playing any game of chance for money or property, and shall induce, entice or permit any person to bet or play at or upon any such gaming table or gambling device, or at or upon any game played or by means of such table or gambling device, or on the side or against the keeper thereof, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than two nor more than five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than six nor more than twelve months.

The nomination of Judge Robertson as Collector of New York port is to be antagonized by Conkling and his party. The President has been notified.

A gang of masked burglars entered Whiginson's packing-house of Chicago, Saturday night, gagged and bound the watchman, exploded the safe, and made off with $2,000.

The jail at Wallhalin, Washington Territory, was broken into Sunday evening and Dick Osborn, a man who had fatally stabbed another in a dance-house, was taken out and lynched.

Henry Warner, itinerant horse-doctor and medicine-peddler, committed a gross assault upon a married lady at Harrisonville, Mo., under pretence of treating her professionally. He narrowly escaped lynching.

The Ladies' Sunday Movement.

The Ladies' Sabbath Association, the purpose of which is to bring about a better observance of the Sunday, especially in regard to closing the theaters on that day, met this afternoon at Pilgrim Congregational Church, corner of Ewing and Washington avenues. In accordance with the published notice, most of the ladies of the various churches handed in the petitions which they have been circulating for the last several months. Nearly every church in the city was represented in these petitions, but in several instances the petitions were not yet ready. The petitions will be put into shape and laid before the Police Board and Municipal Assembly, in the hope that these bodies will take some action which will put an end to Sunday desecration. The ladies all spoke very encouragingly of the success they have met with, and say that they have met with very few refusals in answer to requests for signatures to their papers.

The Time Ball.

EDITOR POST-DISPATCH.—It should be stated that the time ball was slightly delayed upon the occasion of the first dropping on Saturday. The circuit had been completed through the relay only ten minutes before noon, thus preventing any experiment. The observatory signals came with perfect accuracy, but the current on the main line was not strong enough to work instantly the main relay which drops the ball. On this account the ball dropped a few seconds late at noon. During the remainder of the afternoon, in consequence of this, the ball was dropped by means of the standard clock in the building, it having been compared with the observatory signals at noon. Soon as everything is in perfect working order through the line, the public may trust the ball to the fractional part of a second.

Respectfully,

Drawing Small Dividends.

John H. Fisse, assignee of the People's Savings Institution, is engaged to-day in paying a fourth and final dividend of one and one-half per cent to the depositors and creditors of the bank. The creditors are very numerous, and of a poor class generally. When a reporter visited Tivoli Hall at 10 o'clock this morning there were fifty people in waiting to receive their money. Nearly all were women and of the laboring class, those who had deposited in the bank their little savings, and who were bankrupted by the collapse of the bank. They were paid off rapidly and in regular order. Two policemen and several clerks were in attendance. Payments will be continued all this week until all are paid.

Local Brevities.

Another branch land league was organized at Barchi's Hall on Washington avenue yesterday afternoon.

Special meetings of the land leagues of St. Patricks and the Annunciation Parishes were held yesterday afternoon.

John P. Marky, a well known character about town, died while sitting in a chair at White Carroll's saloon yesterday afternoon.

James E. Mills lectured before the Liberal League yesterday afternoon, taking for his subject "The Continent of North America, and How It Was Built Up."

The executive committee of the anti-Charter Amendment Association met yesterday afternoon and decided to call a general meeting of the association at the Laclede on Friday next.

A man, supposed to be E. G. Knowles, died suddenly last night at No. 716 North Fifth street. Several bills were found on his person, all made out to Knowles Mayfield, Cotton Gin, Miss.

A temperance meeting, under the auspices of the Young Men's Temperance Union, was held at the First Congregational Church last night. Addresses were made by Charles H. Baker and J. W. Barnes.

The Socialistic meeting at the Apollo Theater yesterday afternoon was well attended. Addresses were made by Messrs. F. W. Fritzsche and Louis Viereck, the visiting Socialists, and by P. J. Maguire.

The body of a man, fifty years old, having gray moustache and whiskers and brown hair slightly mixed with gray, was found in the river at the foot of Lesperance street yesterday morning. The corpse was recognized as that of a man who has been loafing around the Four Courts for several days. It is evidently a case of suicide. The body had been in the water twenty-four hours.

A serious cutting affray occurred on the steamer Calhoun Saturday night, while on its way up the river. Henry Reed and Henry Jones, colored roustabouts, quarrelled, when Jenes drew out a clasp knife and stabbed Reed severely in the abdomen. The man was put under arrest, and as soon as the boat arrived at the wharf was locked up at the Chestnut Street Station. The wounded man was taken to the hospital. His condition is not dangerous.

MISSOURIANS EN MASSE.

A Projected Procession of Place Hunters at Washington.

The Only Reliable Report of John T. Clements' Caucus.

President Garfield Ignores the Proposition for an Imposing Demonstration.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—The other morning the Washington Post published the following:

"A meeting of Missouri Republicans temporarily residing in, and those visiting Washington City, was held last evening at the residence of Maj. John T. Clements. Hon. S. Burdette called the meeting to order, Gen. McNeil was called to the chair, and E. E. Rogers, of Kansas City, was chosen secretary. On motion Messrs. F. M. Tracey, J. C. S. Colby, Jacob Sands, John T. Clements, and Geo. W. McKean were appointed a committee on resolutions. They submitted a series of resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, congratulating the Republicans of the State on the bright prospects, and especially congratulating them on the return of Hon. R. Van Horn to the councils of the nation. The resolutions closed by saying: We greet as co-laborers all who, spurning the false pledges of Bourbon Democracy, like Ford, Rice, Burrows and Hazeltine, of Missouri, and gallant Senator Mahone, of Virginia, are ready to join the ranks of the living present rather than to chain themselves to a dead past. We especially greet Virginia on the prospects of her happy deliverance from the body of Democratic death, and pledge our earnest exertions to place Missouri with her in the ranks of the living present and army of the grand future."

There is some secret history back of this rather remarkable manifesto which may interest the readers of the POST-DISPATCH. Clements is in the Interior Department, having been one of the first to receive official favor from Secretary Schurz. Although he has been away from Missouri some years he will be remembered as a Republican politician and official who received a great deal of notoriety. He was prominent in the Liberal Republican movement of 1870. Later on he figured in the at Macon when Mrs. Boggs revealed what had been going on. At St. Louis he took a hand in aiding the defense in the whisky-ring trials, and was a leading participant in the famous Babcock serenade at the Lindell. He has been a sort of confidential man for Schurz, John B. Clark, Jr., and others here, looking after a large number of small post-offices in Missouri and of petty appointments in the different Departments. Indeed, Clements developed what amounted to a monopoly in the distribution of small patronage, his relation, with Schurz enabling him to make a showing of influence in little things.

Since the change of administration Clements has been restlessly pondering on plans to perpetuate his power. At the same time he is anxious to advance himself in the Interior Department. It leaks out that some evenings since Clements, with Editor Tracy of St. Joseph, George W. McKean of Sedalia, and several other influential Missouri Republicans of Missouri, met at the National Hotel, and resolved themselves into a Committee of the Whole on this distribution of MISSOURI PATRONAGE.

"All of them wanted something, and everybody who has been here since Garfield got in knows that there is universal misery among the place hunters because things don't go on faster. Van Horn himself had begun to grow impatient. He has been anxiously working things to take the scalps of several Democratic Postmasters in the western part of the State. The fact is that beside the filling of the Lexington Postmastership, the Fifth District Collectorship and the Receivership of Public Moneys at Ironton, next to nothing at all has been done for Missouri.

Clements and his band of place hunters talked over the situation and decided to unite their forces to the end that they might not only push along the distribution of rewards to the faithful of the State, but, by organizing and bringing combined influence to bear on the President and heads of the departments, obtain a kind of supervisory position relative to future appointments in which Missouri may be concerned

In furtherance of the plan of the secret caucus,

A MEETING WAS CALLED

at Clements' house. There is what is known as the Resident Missouri Republican Association here, and Burdette, the president, was at the Clements meeting. It was the plan to have him assume charge, and thus seemingly connect the association with the meeting. Burdette, however, was shy. He called the gathering to order and said that he did not know the object of the meeting; it was not a meeting of the Missouri Republican Association, but had been called for a special purpose of which he was not informed; therefore it was necessary that there should be a separate organization. There was no way out of it except but accept Burdette's ruling and John McNeil was chosen chairman.

Then Judge Sands in a floundering, simple-minded way got up and commenced

THE CUT AND DRIED PROGRAMME.

He evidently meant to be obliging and post those who were not acquainted with what had been going on. He blurted out that to save any misunderstanding he would tell the object of the meeting, as he was one of a party that met at the National Hotel and arranged for the meeting and the action it was desired to have taken. At that hotel conference Messrs. Clements, Tracy and McKean had been appointed a special committee to draft resolutions to be presented to the meeting.

J. C. S. Colby, who wants a Chinese Consulship, got up at this juncture and remarked that Judge Sands' explanation might be supplemented. The purpose of the meeting, as he understood it, was to resolve that Colonel Bob Van Horn's return to Congress was an era in political leadership and presaged probable results in Missouri almost unparalleled in the history of American politics.

This will be recognized as putting it pretty strong in view of the fact that Van Horn by a bare scratch, the Democratic row in the Eighth District splitting the votes of that party in halves, and thus securing to Van Horn the seat in Congress by the grossest of blunders on the part of the Democracy.

However, with this preliminary flourish, Colby got in the resolutions epitomized in the furnished report of the meeting given above.

No mention is made of the wordy war which followed. There was an immediate and a warm protest against the resolutions. It was pictured as farcical for a self-constituted gathering like that to speak for the Republican party of Missouri, and not only this, but it was decidedly previous to embrace the Missouri Greenbackers in such an effusive way before they had given any evidence of the faith in them.

Burdette, Sullivan, of Davies county, Judge Hiiger, Murray and other Missourians, dissented warmly from the resolutions. The final result was their adoption, by a bare majority, the meeting being almost evenly divided on the question.

A CALL ON THE PRESIDENT.

It was decided by another close vote that the Missourians should go in a body, with Van Horn at the head, to call on President Garfield. A committee consisting of Chairman McNeil and Secretary Rogers, of the meeting, was instructed to wait on the President and ask that a time be designated for the proposed demonstration. When they had secured the date McNeil and Rogers were to let the Missourians know by a notice through the National Republican, calling them together at the Ebbitt House. That notice, it is sad to say, has not as yet appeared, and the pap-hunters wait and wonder when they are to march in a body to the White House. Van Horn got disgusted, had a falling out with some of the crowd about the Collectorship vacancy and has gone out of the city. The demonstration of the Missourians in force is one of the things of the dim, shadowy future.

AMUSEMENTS.

OLYMPIC.

Willie Edouin's "Sparks" Company made a second appearance here this season at the Olympic last evening. The house was crowded, and the specialty, "Dreams, or Fun in a Photograph Gallery," which scored such a success at the Opera-house earlier in the season, furnished a rich fund of amusement. Some excellent new things have been introduced in music, comic sketches and bright sayings. The chief male characters are admirably sustained by Willie Edouin, Jacques Kruger and James T. Bowers, and Miss Atherton's place is well filled by Miss Lillian Lancas as Ruby. The Misses Ida Shapleigh, Annette Du Marc and Julia Edouin make up a strong company. The performance was well received last evening, and it will attract large audience, to the Olympic during the week.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Maggie Mitchell, a genuine favorite here, will commence her annual engagement at the Grand Opera-house this evening. Her selection for to-night is "Jane Eyre," and she will be supported by R. Fulton Russell and a good company. To-morrow "Fanchon" will be presented and Wednesday "Pearl of Savoy."

POPE'S.

The Harrison's open an engagement at this house to-night in "Photos." An entire reconstruction of the piece has added much to the attractive quality, and in addition to the talented Harrisons, Robert E. Graham will appear in his superb mimic sketches of Bernhardt, Joe Emmet and other stage celebrities.

THE ELKS' BENEFIT.

The grand annual benefit of the Elks at the Opera-house on Thursday afternoon promises to be a brilliant success. The bill-of-fare is remarkably attractive, combining the Harrisons, Willie Edouin's Sparks Company and Maggie Mitchell's Company, together with the musical societies of the city. Those who desire favorable locations should apply at once at the box office of the Grand Opera-house.

GEO. HEUER.

The annual benefit of George Heuer, the affable and obliging assistant treasurer of the Olympic, takes place on Saturday evening, when Willie Edouin's Company will appear in "Dreams, or Fun in a Photograph Gallery." George deserves a substantial acknowledgment on the part of the public and he will assuredly get it upon this occasion.

THE WINTER'S WORK.

How the City's Poor Have Been Relieved of Their Necessities.

The Associations Which Feed and Clothe Those Who Are in Want.

Nearly 5,000 Families, Comprising 17,500 Persons, Assisted for Sweet Charity's Sake.

Resume of the Good Work Accomplished Since November by the Local Charitable Organizations.

The winter just closing has been one of the longest and uniformly cold seasons known to St. Louis for some time. Long before the usual time in last October cheerful fires were kindled in happy homes, and instead of the chilling March days that month brought winter's blasts. The cold weather once set in remained, and during the months of November, December, January and February the temperature continued evenly low. Many were poorly prepared for this, and the indigent not at all. The strikes of last summer and the succeeding lull in business left many a laborer unprovided for the winter's hardships. A combination of circumstances largely increased the number of applicants, and only by the most systematic means and careful calculations have the charitable organizations succeeded in meeting the heavy demands. The most discriminate bestowal of alms alone has enabled them to relieve the worthy poor. Besides the many private charities about the city there are four charitable schemes, upon three of which the heavy work of relief falls. These are the Police Charity Ball Fund Association, St. Louis Provident Association, St. Vincent de Paul Conference and the United Hebrew Relief Association. At a low calculation there are nearly 5,000 families worthy of assistance and unable to help themselves in this city.

ST. LOUIS PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION.

The St. Louis Provident Association was organized December 3, 1860, and incorporated March 17, 1863. The specified object of the association was to look after the welfare of the poor of St. Louis, not otherwise provided for by churches or other benevolent bodies, and to provide them with suitable employment when possible and expedient. Its officers consist of a board of twenty directors: Messrs. George Partridge, Henry S. Platt, D. P. Rowland, John W. Larrimore, Charles F. Orthwein, R. M. Scruggs, Dwight Durkee, Charles W. Burston, Joseph W. Branch, John C. Fischer, John R. Lionberger, George S. Drake, S. M. Dodd, George Bain, Robert Dougherty, F. B. Chamberlin, John T. Davis, James M. Corbitt, G. Sessinghaus and George A. Baker, of the President, Secretary and ex-Officio members of this Board. Mr. George Partridge is President; John R. Lionberger, Vice-President; James E. Yeatman, Treasurer; George H. Morgan Secretary, and Rev. Fred Lack, Superintendent. The executive committee is composed of Messrs. George S. Drake, John R. Lionberger, and R. M. Scruggs. The only sources of revenue are collections and donations. The city is districted into seven precincts, as follows: South of Chouteau avenue to old city limits; from Chouteau avenue to Market street; from Market to Olive; from Olive to Washington avenue; from Washington avenue to Cass avenue; from Cass avenue to Spring street and north of St. Louis avenue. Since its organization the association has expended $399,868 32 for the relief of the poor up to last year. Collectors are appointed for each district, with a chairman who reports to the Association the results of his colaboreurs' work in the district which is subdivided in to smaller districts. For the relief of the poor the city is divided into two parts by Market street. Those seeking assistance and living north of Market street get relief from the depot at 1416 Chambers street, and those living south of Market are relieved from the depot at Thirteenth street and Geyer avenue. Both depots are attended to by Rev. Mr. Lack, who is present at each on certain days of the week. A family asking aid makes application at either depot. The names and address is registered and the family is visited by the superintendent, whose practiced eye will soon distinguish the cause of misery's reign. If found worthy they are furnished with a ticket stating the amount of fuel and food necessary for the family; this ticket is presented at the depots and the name and other facts entered up on the day book, and the amount called for is given. The beauty of the working of the Provident Association is the accuracy with which every cent is accounted for and the systematic way in which everything is done. During the past winter the association relieved 2,013 families, composing over 7,000 persons. The average ages of the heads of the families relieved are as follows:

	Males.	Females.
Under 20	46	5
20 to 30	131	110
30 to 41	131	426
40 to 50	123	423
50 to 60	144	221
60 to 70	87	191
70 to 80	43	92
80 to 100	13	19

The reasons assigned why aid is required in these cases may not be uninteresting, they are given as follows:

Unable to procure employment	105
Desertion	22
On account of small children	420
Intemperance of the heads of families	5
Sickness	785
Misfortune, deformed and crippled	300

And old age, which is assigned as the cause in over 500 cases. Nearly 900 of those are widows; 200 of the husbands are away from their families and 25 deserted by their husbands. These have been visited about 6,000 times; provisions have been distributed 32,000 times, and fuel given out about 12,000 times. Necessarily the provisions and fuel are given out in small quantities, as the applicant may call as often as instructed, which is as often as aid is required. Over 30,000 pounds of flour, 65,000 pounds of cornmeal and 225,000 pounds of bread have been distributed, with 90,000 bushels of coal. The association gives out only the provisions necessary to sustain life, except when donations of tea, coffee, etc., are made, and then the first come are the first served. The families relieved are about half foreign and half American.

For last year the following were the occupations of those given assistance;

Washerwomen	844
Needlewomen	269
Mechanical	104
Mercantile	10
Professional	13
Laborers	482
None	400

The following item should certainly be of interest to ministers of the gospel and those charitable persons next to whose hearts is the future welfare of the human kind, and who contribute so generously to the religious enlightenment of the poor heathen of Yang-etse-Kiang: Denominations of the poor—Families connected with the Roman Catholic Church, 157; families connected with Protestant Church, 85; families connected with no church at all, 1,871. Since Nov. 1, 1880, the association has expended $15,000 in the work of relief. This figure represents much more than would be supposed, for all the purchases made by the association are made under contract, and during the past winter coal was often bought for three and four cents a bushel less than what was paid for it by private consumers. The systematic relief afforded by the association is its best feature, and by this means the large demands are plentifully met.

THE CHARITY BALL FUND.

The St. Louis Police Department has efficiently served the citizens in making a careful distribution of the money raised at the annual charity ball. This was instituted seven years ago and has proven a wise step, notwithstanding the severe comment it excites among the many who turn in horror from the sight of sin. Each year it has been more and more successful, and at the last ball over $12,000 was realized. Of this amount over $10,000 has been expended, and there now remains in bank to the credit of the charity ball $2,227. The demand on the fund has been steady and heavy since the beginning of the cold weather. Appended is a statement of the distributions in the various districts, giving the number of families, number of males, number of females and the amount expended:

This makes a grand total of $8,885 56 expended among 2,560 families, not including the Second District, and 7,897 males and 11,225 females. This is only for the months of November, December, January and February.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

The oldest charitable organization in existence in this city is the St. Vincent de Paul Conference. In 1833 the society was organized by eight young men in Paris, France. It spread rapidly and a council was formed in New York and a branch in St. Louis. The members in this city soon increased and the extent of the conference became so large that it was found necessary to form a council here. So that the Future Great is now one of those cities in the Union where the upper councils of the order exist. The report up of the past winter's work has not yet been made but the total amount expended so far is over, $14,000. The following figures obtained from members of the Upper Council will give a good idea of the amount of work accomplished:

St. Vincent's Parish Conference numbers forty-eight members with twelve families of an average of four persons on the lists. Distributions, $325.

St. Bridget's has sixty-five members; 850 reliefs granted; forty-four families on relief lists, including 116 children. Total expenses of reliefs, burials, clothing, food, etc., $800 per annum.

St. Vincent's (German conference), forty members, fifteen visiting members, 320 relief granted, $360 expended.

St. Mary's Parish numbers 30 members, nearly all of whom are visiting members; their expenses for relieving the poor, $180.

St. Francis Xavier's, 25 members; 40 families relieved, including 120 persons. Total expenditures, $1,200.

St. Nicholas' Conference, 35 members; 10 members visiting the poor. Thirty-five poor children attending school for which the conference pays tuition. Expenses for provisions, $225.

St. Michael's Parsih Conference has a membership of 20, with 22 poor families, including 40 children on the relief lists.

The Annunciation has a membership of 30, with 11 families of pensioners, nearly all of whom have been assisted almost weekly. The expenses of this conference are about $250.

St. Joseph's Parish is the largest in the city, having 100 members. In this district 480 reliefs have been granted of an average of 9 families a week. Their expenses for medicine, provisions, clothing and traveling expenses amount to over $650.

St. Liborius' Parish Conference has 40 members; granted over 450 reliefs, sending 6 children to school.

St. John Nepomuk's Conference has sixty-two members. The children are educated at the expense of the conference. The conference each winter grants relief to nearly 400 persons, and their expenses are $350.

Saints Peter and Paul's Society has 51 members; granted nearly 900 reliefs and expending during the winter over $1,000.

St. Theresa's during the winter has had a membership of 47. Several were dropped from the roll for non-attendance. This parish during the winter has given out 500 bushels of coal and 25 sacks of flour, besides meal, clothing, etc. Its expenses have exceeded $250.

St. John's Conference has relieved forty families of 150 persons. Its expenditures, including 1,000 bushels of coal and $350 worth of provisions, have been nearly $500.

St. Malachi's Society of St. Vincent de Paul has thirty members on the roll and but only eight poor families on the list as applying for relief. The expenses have not exceeded $50.

St. Patrick's is one of the largest in the city, and one in which the heaviest demands are made for assistance. It has twenty-five members. They relieved twenty families since the beginning of winter, and many more were occasionally afforded aid when the funds of the society permitted it. The expenses for the four months of winter have been $430. Work is procured for all females able and willing to support themselves by their own exertions. The children of the beneficiaries attend the free schools under the direction of the Christian Brothers.

The parish of the Holy Trinity has a branch society of thirty-five members. During the winter the society expended $100 independent of that paid for the education of the poor children of the parish.

Sts. Mary's and Joseph's branch of Carondelet has twelve members who have been exceptionally active and performed wonders in the work of relief in South St. Louis. They have half a hundred families to take care of, but by judicious and careful management they succeeded in doing the work with about $325 during such long winters as the past.

St. Elizabeth's, the colored parish, has twenty members, and during the winter expended nearly $200 in assisting the poor of the parish.

St. Lawrence O'Toole's Conference at the last general meeting made no report. They have a membership of about twenty-five, and the discharge of the duties of these members in this large parish has proven an extensive work.

All the above-named conferences are under the direction of the Upper Council of the society of St. Vincent de Paul, of St. Louis. This is composed of the following gentlemen: Jos. O'Neil, R. T. Barry, John Ring, John Amand, M. H. Phelan and John Barry. The officers are as follows: Louis Fusz, president; John Armand, vice-president; J. C. Barry, second vice-president; R. F. Barry, treasurer. The office of secretary was filled by Mr. John Ring, who has resigned. Its organization is much similar to that of the Provident Association. The city is divided into districts for which collectors are appointed. The real work of relieving the distressed is done by the members of the various conferences. No distinction whatever is made among the distressed, and in addition to the corporal aid the members are under instructions to assist the poor in attending to their spiritual welfare as far as possible, and in consistence with the laws of the organization which prohibits all direct interference with religious beliefs. The upper council has full charge of all matters and the management of all funds, so that the surplus in one conference is taken to supply the deficit in another. In this way the conference is ever ready to furnish the necessaries of life, or medical attendance, if required. It co-operates with the Provident Association, and so the two stand the bulk of the work of aiding the worthy distressed.

HEBREW RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

The United Hebrew Relief Association is one of the largest sectarian aid societies in the city, and does much toward assisting the general associations and the police, upon whom devolve the responsibility of seeing after the support of the poor of the city irrespective of condition or belief. The association has two hundred and twenty contributing members whose subscriptions vary from two to fifty dollars. The list includes the names of all the well-known Hebrew business men in the city. The society gives more thorough relief than the police, St. Vincent or the Provident Association, as it is not called upon to help so many. Its own medical staff is composed of the following well-known physicians: Dr. Bernard Bloch, Dr. F. Kolbenheyer, Dr. H. Tuholske, Dr. Moritz Bloch, Dr. Wash E. Fischel and Dr. J. Friedman. The officers are as follows: B. Hysinger, President; L. M. Hellman, Vice-President; A. Binswanger, Secretary, and William Goldstein, Treasurer. These with the following named gentlemen compose the directory of the association: Albert Fischer, Moses Strauss, Leo Levis, Rev. Dr. M. Spitz, D. Kohn, R. Weil, B. Singer, J. B. Greensfelder and Joseph Wolfert. Mr. L. Wolfner is Superintendent. By him the direct work of relief is done.

During the past winter the association aided about 33 families, 45 adults and 94 children during November; 10 families, 60 adults and 95 children in December; 35 families, 50 adults and 85 children in January; 30 families, 45 adults and 80 children during February. In this work, exclusive of all other demands, the society expended over $800. The members have contributed generously, and the success of the association is beyond doubt.

A Mexican Tourist.

Among the notable arrivals at the Lindell this morning were H. Saledo and servant, of Chihuahua, Mexico. Mr. Saledo is a wealthy mine owner, and the son of one of the most prominent citizens of Chihuahua. He is traveling in this country partly for pleasure and partly for business. He is accompanied by Mr. W. L. Davis, of Colorado, who has just bought some very valuable mines from Mr. Saledo. A reporter called upon Mr. Saledo at the Lindell, but was unable to obtain a very extended interview, for the reason that Mr. Saledo speaks little or no English and the news man still less Spanish. Mr. Saledo is a typical Spaniard, of small frame and handsome face. The servant, who is also a Spaniard, is a curiosity, and his attire is such as to attract a great deal of attention. He is the observed of all around the Lindell rotunda to-day. Mr. Saledo will go to New York and return home via San Francisco and the Southern Pacific. He is very much pleased with the country and takes a great interest in all he sees.

Vandalia Line.

Full complement of new and splendid Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars, built expressly for this line, and unrivaled in magnificence and improvements for comfort and pleasure, attached to the evening express, DAILY, and the well-known hotel sleeping cars to the morning express, DAILY, running through to Indianapolis, Columbus, Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York without change, offering advantages equalled by no other line. All trains from the West and South connect with the above fast trains in the Union Depot. Ticket office No. 100 N. Fourth street.

Inquest.

Yesterday afternoon a man named Knowles, of the firm of Knowles & Mansfield, Cotton Gin, Mississippi, died suddenly at Sprague & Son's restaurant, No. 716 North Fifth street. When he first entered he complained and was attended by Dr. James P. Kingsley, who prescribed for him. A short time afterwards the man expired, and Dr. Kingsley stated that under the circumstance he could not consent to give a burial certificate. The body was taken to the Morgue, when $30 in cash and receipts for $1,600 were found in one of the pockets. An inquest was held this afternoon.

Overstolz and Fraud.

From the Republican of December 19, 1875.

The recount clearly establishes Mr. Britton's election. All talk of enormous frauds is simply nonsense, and to call Mr. Overstolz "the popular choice," in view of the facts, is as absurd as untruthful, and could only be said in the Anzeiger and Westliche Post. We trust, then, that the fair-minded men of the Council will end this disgraceful business.

A Brand From the Burning.

Upon the morning after the Southern Hotel fire one of the leaves from the register was picked up on Main street. It bears date November 27, and contains quite a number of well-known names. The finder the other day presented the sheet to Mr. Harvey Willard, now of the Lindell, who was in charge of the office of the Southern when the fire occurred.

HIGH NOON.

The Successful Dropping of the Time Ball To-Day—How the Ball Falls.

At a quarter to 12 this morning people began to gather in the vicinity of Fifth and Olive streets to see the Jaccard time ball drop at noon. The thoroughfares in all directions were crowded with a throng of gentlemen and ladies who waited, watch in hand for exact high noon to be announced. The interest taken in this exhibition is unflagging. Everybody seems anxious to see the ball drop, and the enterprise of the E. Jaccard Jewelry Company in founding and maintaining this great public convenience met with commendation upon every hand. At five minutes to twelve a POST-DISPATCH reporter stepped out upon the roof of the Jaccard establishment and joined the little group of ladies and gentlemen who were standing at the telegraphic instrument just behind the great ball. Prof. Pritchett was adjusting the instruments and occasionally telegraphing to the Observatory. The machinery is not at all complex; the ball is lifted into position by hand, not by electricity. A direct circuit is made with the standard clock at the Morrison Observatory at Glasgow, an instrument which was purchased in London and is one of the very best in the country. At one minute before twelve a peculiarly made wheel with sixty cogs fifteen of which have been removed, is slipped into position opening and closing the electric circuit every second for forty-five seconds. When the wheel reaches the part where the cogs have been removed of course the circuit is closed, and during this interval the ring of the ball rope is slipped upon the trigger and the other supports of the ball removed. Then when the 12 o'clock is reached the noon second is sent, pulling the trigger by an ingenious bit of mechanism and dropping the ball. The clock opens and closes the circuit automatically, thus leaving no time to be lost in different personal equations; but when the ball drops that is exactly the noon second. The arrangements as yet made are only temporary, but the whole apparatus will soon be comfortably under shelter, as the Eugene Jaccard Jewelry Co. will spare no pains to make this great public convenience a thorough success. The gun at noon to-day was not fired, but hereafter the noon second which drops the ball will fire the gun simultaneously. Prof. Pritchett says that from the E. Jaccard's Company's ball the beats of the Morrison Observatory clock can be distributed all over the city wherever they are wanted. Until the permanent shelter for the instruments is made, the ball will not be allowed to drop the whole length of the pole.

The hundreds of people who daily flock to see this interesting exhibition are unanimous in commending the public spirit of the enterprising firm which has established the time ball, the more so as the experiment is an expensive one, and one which can bring back no immediate return further than establishing beyond a doubt the fact that "Jaccard's time" is the city time.

Glasgow time is about ten minutes different from St. Louis time, but the clock is corrected for this place.

Overstolz and Political Prostitution.

From the Republican, May 16, 1877.

By his behavior and by that of his friends Mr. Overstolz has seriously degraded the idea of independence in politics, and has correspondingly advanced the respectability of partyism. The two uncalled for and unsuccessful canvasses he has made in the role of an Independent candidate can not fail to bring that word and the political doctrine it represents into considerable odium, at least in local politics. In this case the doctrine of political independence was prostituted and turned into a farce, the memory of which will linger long in the popular mind to the prejudice of the better and worthier Independent movements in the future.

No well managed factory is complete without a full supply of St. Jacob's Oil in case of emergency or accident.

Raft Items.

The Little Eagle, Capt. N. B. Lucas, will leave Montrose, Iowa, to-morrow with a raft of lumber for dealers.

The Charley Bowen arrived in to-day with a barge load of walnut logs, 150,000 feet, for the St. Louis Saw-mill Company.

The Beaver got in with a large load of oak logs, 100,000 feet, from the lower rivers, for the W. C. Bell & Bros. Company, of Venice.

Capt. Albert Lourey and his crew of men left this morning for West Port Slough, for a large raft of hard wood logs for this market.

Capt. Frank Leibke, of this firm, will be back to-night from Madison, where he went to look after his new log barge, the Robert Mitchell.

Capt. John W. Parker, General River Superintendent of the Knapp, Stout & Co. Company, put a force of lumber piers at work this morning.

The Viola Parker, Capt. Thomas Parker, Jr., left at daylight for Alton Slough, and will return this evening with seven strings, 1,000,000 feet of lumber, for the Eau Claire Lumber Company.

WHEN in need of bottled beer, always call for C. Conrad & Co.'s Budweiser. For sale all first class groceries, drug stores and saloons.

Oakes' Candies in Court.

The candy conflict between the Skinners and Peter Oakes for the right of sale of "Oakes' candies" was renewed this morning in Circuit Court No. 3. The decision of the Court of Appeals a few days since was entirely favorable to Peter Oakes, who went ahead selling and advertising his toothsome commodities, and counsel this morning in behalf of the Skinners moved for a preliminary injunction in Judge Boyle's Court to restrain Oakes upon an amended petition filed in the suit pending in that court. Judge Boyle declined to grant preliminary relief in the case, doubting his authority to do so under all the circumstances of the case.

Overstolz and the Bummers.

From the St. Louis Republican, of May 16, 1875.

As for the Democratic bummers and strikers who went for Overstolz in disgust at the nomination of a thoroughly respectable candidate by their own party, they are welcome to such crumbs of comfort as they can pick up anywhere.

A HUMAN BRUTE.

Indecent Assault Upon a Nine-Year-Old Girl.

Lawrence Logmorsine was placed in the Four Courts calaboose this morning by Officer Dixon on a serious charge. The complaint was made to the police by Mr. Wall, who lives at 407 South Levee, who said that yesterday afternoon Logmorsine, an employe in a vinegar factory near by, enticed his nine-year old daughter, Lizzie Wall, up-stairs, and then committed an indecent assault upon her, injuring her seriously. Officer Dixon was detailed this morning by Sergeant McDonald to watch for Logmorsine in citizens' clothes. The man was arrested and taken to the presence of the little girl, who said she was positive he was the man. He was then taken to the Four Courts' hold-over where he was confined until a warrant was sworn out, when he was transferred to jail.

Overstolz Beloved by Bummers.

From the St. Louis Republican, May 15, 1875.

It is a pretty square issue between the bummer ring and the decent people of St. Louis. The decent people are for Britton regardless of party.

CARONDELET JOTTINGS.

It seems that the railroad boys having to the number of over two hundred signed a call upon Abraham Block to become a candidate for the House of Delegates, they regard him as their own, and in accordance with their wishes he withdrew this morning from the primary election, but will remain on the track and be known as the "Railroad Independent candidate."

Justice Spies has a level head and a benevolent heart. He felt this morning that American citizens who are hungering and thirsting after an opportunity of voting for Overstolz delegates ought not to be deprived of the privilege, and consequently only costs were imposed upon two violators of city ordinances, which they quickly paid and went forth to do as above mentioned.

A Minor's Homestead.

Judge Boyle to-day rendered an important decision in a suit for partition, Rhorer, trustee, et al. vs. Brocklage. This was a case in which it was shown that John Brocklage died leaving a homestead which became vested in his widow and minor child, the widow having elected to take a child's share absolutely in lieu of dower. The purchaser of the widow's undivided half interest sought a partition against the minor, whose guardian set up the defense of homestead. Judge Boyle in an exhaustive decision holds that the partition can not be had during the infant's minority.

vs.

Anna E. Greenwalt, August Reinders and Annie M. Reinders, his wife, and Daniel Hefferman.

Now comes the plaintiffs by their attorney and it appearing from the affidavit heretofore filed herein that the defendant, Anna E. Greenwalt, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and that said defendants, August Reinders and Annie M. Reinders are either non-residents of this State, or have absented themselves from their usual place of abode so that the ordinary process of law can not be served upon them, wherefore on motion of plaintiff by attorney it is ordered that said defendants, Anna E. Greenwalt, August Reinders and Annie M. Reinders be notified that a civil action has been commenced against them, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree, decreeing the following deeds, to-wit: a deed from M. A. Rosenblatt, Collector, to August Reinders, assignee of Daniel Hefferman, bearing date the 24th day of May, 1879, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds for the city of St. Louis, in book 610, at page 300, and also a deed from August Reinders and Annie M., his wife, to Henry M. Berry, bearing date the 16th day of July, 1879, recorded in said Recorder's office in book 610 at page 509, and also a deed from Henry M. Berry to A. E. Greenwalt, bearing date the 5th day of November, 1879, recorded in said Recorder's office in book 621, at page 468, to be void and held for naught, and that said defendants be required to deliver up said deeds to be canceled, all of said deeds embracing or affecting the following land, situated in the city of St. Louis and State of Missouri, to-wit:

Lot 19 of block 50 of Stoddard's addition to the city of St. Louis in city block 1015, having a front of 34 feet 9 inches on the north line of Pine street by a depth northwardly of 131 feet to an alley 15 feet wide, bounded north by said alley, east by property of Edward Joy, south by Pine street, and west by Garrison avenue.

And unless they appear at the term of this court to be begun and held at the city of St. Louis, on the first Monday of June next, and on or before the third day thereof, answer the plaintiff's petition, the same will be taken against them as confessed.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the St. Louis POST-DISPATCH a newspaper printed and published in the city of St. Louis.

A true copy from the record.

The leading Scientists of to-day agree that most diseases are caused by disordered Kidneys or Liver. If, therefore, the Kidneys and Liver are kept in perfect order, perfect health will be the result. This truth has only been known a short time and for years people suffered great agony without being able to find relief. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure marks a new era in the treatment of these troubles. Made from a simple tropical leaf of rare value, it contains just the elements necessary to nourish and invigorate both of these great organs, and safely restore and keep them in order. It is a POSITIVE Remedy for all the diseases that cause pains in the lower part of the body—for Torpid Liver—Headaches—Jaundice—Dizziness—Gravel—Fever, Ague—Malarial Fever, and all difficulties of the Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs.

It is an excellent and safe remedy for females during Pregnancy. It will control menstruation and is invaluable for Leucorrhœa or Falling of the Womb.

As a Blood Purifier it is unequaled, for it cures the organ that makes the blood.

THE RAIN AND THE REIGN.

Overstolz' Prospects Bettered by Dampness.

Scenes About the Polls in the Early Hours.

The Reformers Working Valiantly for Their Cause.

The polls for the Democratic primaries opened at 12 o'clock, and for an hour and a half there was pretty steady work for the judges in the more populous precincts. Toward 2 o'clock it began to rain and the enthusiasm was somewhat dampened. The anti-Overstolz managers depend a great deal on getting out a heavy vote. As the weather diminishes the number of voters so will the prospects of success be lessened. The Overstolz strength is of the positive, interested sort, which could manifest itself at the polls in a cyclone. When the polls opened it became manifest that the City Hall crowd had made the most elaborate preparations. They had strikers at every polling place and vehicles in waiting. The familiar faces of the tax-eaters were conspicuous in their respective precincts at the opening of the polls, and they had plainly come to stay till the voting was finished. The City Hall was well-nigh deserted after noon to-day

The primaries are held under the State law which prohibits the peddling of ballots. This provision was brought very promptly to the attention of partisans by the police and in the Fourth Ward Dennis Muleahy was arrested for violating it. One of the liveliest scenes found by POST-DISPATCH reporters was at the polls on Fifth and Biddle streets. At 1:30 p. m. there were a hundred voters in line. In both the Second and Fourth Wards the anti-Overstolz men claimed to be ahead after the first hour.

At the western polling place of the Second Ward, Harry Keevil, John W. Drake and Reub Ameiung were among the workers. Justice Monahan felt quite confident that the anti-Overstolz delegates would be elected.

The judges opened their books promptly at 12 o'clock noon at Golden's shoe store on Fourteenth street, near Olive, and voting began very slowly. During the first hour and a half there were no more than twenty ballots deposited, of which the majority appeared to be against the Overstolz delegation. The polling place embraces election districts Nos. 15 and 102.

At Alexander & Crum's livery stable, No. 1308 Washington avenue, there was a little delay on the part of the judges in opening the polls. It was nearly 12:30 o'clock p.m. when the first vote was deposited. The anti-Overstolz ticket appeared to be the favorite. At 1:30 o'clock twenty ballots had been cast. This polling place comprises election district No. 96, 97, 101 and 103.

At No. 1415½ Franklin avenue the voting began promptly at 12 o'clock noon with some briskness. During the first two hours forty-five ballots were deposited. Here, too, the opponents of the Mayor seemed to be in the majority at this hour. This polling place embraces Election Districts Nos. 98, 99, 100, 104 and 105.

The polls in the First Ward all opened on time, with a little excitement. At the Court-house the judges took their places as the time ball at Jaccard's dropped, but there was very little voting going on to keep them busy. The lack of canvassers and the absence of electioneering of all kinds was remarkable. One or two men were holding tickets but beyond this no efforts of any kind were made. Ed. Butler was around in his buggy and did considerable quiet talking, but he was about the only worker visible during the early hours of the afternoon. Of the light vote polled up to the time of going to press both parties claimed a majority, but nothing definite could be predicted. At the poll on Main street near Elm the same absence of excitement was manifest. There was very little interest taken during the early hours of the afternoon, possibly because most of the votes in these precincts are laboring men. Several Overstolz carriages did some lively hustling during the dinner hour, and two or three dozen laborers were brought in from the neighboring factories and foundries. There was a rumor up-town that a fight had occurred at the opening of this poll, but there was no foundation for the report. At the polling place at 1018 Market street, a heavy vote was being polled, but there was not much stir or noise. The City Hall employes are putting in heavy licks for Overstolz, but they appeared to be not satisfied with the way things were going.

NOTES.

A fraudulent ticket, headed "Regular Anti-Overstolz Ticket," is being circulated at the polling places in the First Ward. The names upon it are Leverett Pratt, Roland McDonald, Mark Langlet, W. W. Polk, Frank C. Brown. Under the ruling the votes cast for the ticket cannot be counted, as it is marked anti-Overstolz at the head. The regular ticket, in opposition to Overstolz, of which the one mentioned is a counterfeit, contains the names of Leverett A. Pratt, Chas. H. Tyler, John Curran, Thos. Kelly and Bryan Rudd.

BELLEVILLE.

The Circuit Court will convene to-morrow.

A large delegation started from Belleville this morning to attend the interment of the late Col. Hecker. The Belleville Guards, Company A, many of the old soldiers who served under the Colonel and a large representation of the legal talent, compose the delegation.

About nine o'clock last night Reuben Howard had a difficulty with another man, which will probably terminate fatally for the unknown. During the course of the melee Howard drew a large dirk-knife and inflicted severe wounds upon his opponent. Howard managed to make his escape immediately after the cutting was accomplished. He is described as being of a dark, yellow complexion, about twenty-three years of age, six feet high, and wearing jeans clothes. A description has been telegraphed to all the towns within the immediate vicinity of Belleville.

A lively scene was witnessed by about half a dozen men who had assembled in the Birkner Station saloon last night. Two of the assembled party, becoming rather abusive, began quarreling and afterwards pounding one another in the most artistic manner. The barkeeper interfered and endeavored to put his pugnacious customers outside. He succeeded in getting them out and locking the door when they suspended hostilities among themselves and began a united attack upon the saloon. Failing to break open the door, they threw beer kegs and large stones through the windows, breaking the glass and shutters and wrecking the premises. The proprietor fled to Belleville by an out-of-the-way route and swore out a warrant before 'Squire Guentz for the arrest of all parties.

CATTLE—The butcher cattle department opened up early and transfers were quite free, and at the prices prevailing on last Friday. The range paid was from $4@4 70 for light to good native butcher steers; cows, heifers and stags from $3 75@4 15. Total offerings on sale large, some one hundred and twenty-five car loads, the bulk of which consisted of fair to good heavy native shipping steers. Eastern shippers and exporters were on hand but were slow in going to work and wanted concessions arguing that prices are relatively higher than in Chicago or New York and that the run at those points to-day are also large. At about 11 o'clock activity commenced and the scales were kept busy weighing up the purchases made by shippers at declines of 5@15c per 100 lbs. Heavy native steers of 1,559 lbs brought $5 40; light to good steers $4 65@5 15; stock and feeding steers scarce and wanted and the same can be said of mixed native and southwest butcher stock. Milch cows with calves weak.

HOGS—Up to the hour of noon the market had not opened. The supply was large and of all grades, but the different classes of buyers held off and did not manifest much disposition to operate. The reports from Chicago were not very flattering. Shippers had but limited orders and were in no hurry to make purchases. A couple of buyers about 11 o'clock began the inspection of hogs and to make offers on Yorkers 5.40@5.45; mixed packing, 5@5.50; butcher and select, 5.70@6.10. No doubt there will be some activity this afternoon at the above figures.

SHEEP—Fairly active and unchanged. The supply was only moderate and which was taken by local speculations and butchers altogether. Shippers were out of the market. Values steady.

We quote choice to extra $5 10 to $5 85; fair to good $4 25 to $5 00; medium to fair $3 50 to $4 00; common to inferior at $2 50 to $3 50.

ABSOLUTE SALE.

MASONIC HALL BLOCK

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue and authority of a decree and special execution issued from the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis, returnable to the April term, 1881, of said Court, and to me directed, wherein James Baker, Joel Wood, William H. Lee and Mira Benoist are plaintiffs, and the Masonic Hall Association, James H. Britton and Calvin F. Burnes are defendants.

I have levied upon and seized the following described real estate, situated in the City of St. Louis and State of Missouri, and described in said decree and special execution as follows, to wit:

Beginning at the southeast corner of St. Louis city block number one hundred and eighty-four (184) in said city of St. Louis, running thence westwardly with the north line of Market street one hundred and thirty-five (135) feet to a point, thence northwardly and parallel with Seventh street one hundred and nine (109) feet to an alley, thence eastwardly with the south line of said alley one hundred and thirty-five feet to the west line of Seventh street, thence southwardly with the west line of Seventh street one hundred and nine (109) feet to the point of beginning; bounded north by an alley, east by Seventh street, south by Market street and west by ground now or formerly of James H. Lucas.

And I will, on

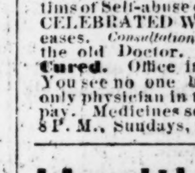

Thursday, the 7th Day of April, 1881

between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the east front door of the Court-house, in the City of St. Louis, State of Missouri, sell at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, the above described property, to satisfy said execution, damage, interest and costs.

ISAAC M. MASON,
Sheriff of the City of St. Louis.

The Time Ball.

The time ball is an orthodox observer of Sunday proprieties. Yesterday, as the hour of 12 m. approached a crowd began to gather on the corner of Fifth and Olive streets, with their eyes turned skyward to catch a glympse of the chronological punctuator which has just entered upon the performance of its functions on the top of Jaccard's building. Perhaps 500 people were standing in the street with their heads bent back until they swam with the effort, when the big clock struck the hour of noon. Nothing happened. The big ball remained as stationary as a planet in siderial heavens, and after various ejaculations of disapointment the people suddenly scattered.
